Heavy Citizen, Merchant Protest Seen Monday At Sales Tax Meeting

REMOVAL of all parking meters on Mission street between Theta and Eastlake avenues was completed last week as part of a "trial" system. City councilmen ruled that the meters weren't producing enough revenue. If there proves to be too much traffic congestion without the meters, they will be re-installed.

Bank of America's Westlake branch was entirely "cleaned out" Monday - cleaned out of employees.

Phone operator at the local bank got her wires crossed when Millbrae B of A branch phoned to report that they had received an anonymous call about a bomb being placed in their vault.

Before the Millbrae caller could finish his story, Westlake branch had contacted the cops and Manager DENNY FRANCO ordered the bank evacuated.

Employees got a 20 - minute "break," after which police discovered the mix-up.

As it turned out there was no bomb at either bank and the only thing that went off were the employees.

Daly City senior citizens Mr. and Mrs. S. W. MURPHY, 123½ San Barbara avenue, were impressed by the concern shown for them the other day by their mailman, WILLIAM HOLLINGSWORTH.

The Murphys took one of their few weekend fishing jaunts and the mailman was alarmed to find newspapers piling up at the Murphy residence Monday.

The couple had only been home ten minutes when the postman knocked on the door to inquire about their welfare.

So the postman does ring twice. And the Murphys are no relation to Postmaster VINCE MURPHY.

Mrs. Salzman is 33, but doesn't look it.

Household appliances account for that young look in modern day housewives, says the PG&E message.

Muni Owned Transit Urged By Westlakers

A long-range program for municipally - operated transportation, which would not include the present Northgate Transit Co. jitney operation, was called for in a report to the city council Wednesday from the Westlake Business and Professional association.

Bernard Etcheverry, president of the business group, said the recommendations of the association would come up for adoption Tuesday and were almost assured of passage.

The report declared the jitneys were "completely inadequate on the grounds of mechanical condition, safety, cost and public convenience."

The merchants went on record "as opposing any route changes now," Etcheverry said. The jitneys two new route changes come up before the state public utilities commission Thursday.

"Muni Owned"

The report declared Daly City transportation "should be municipally owned and operated." Etcheverry explained that the merchants felt a private company such as the jitneys would sooner or later service only the "choice" routes which brought in the best revenue and thus neglect servicing other areas.

The merchants called for formation of a citizens committee to study all aspects of municipally-owned transportation and asked allocation of city funds for the study.

Asked if his group was opposed to the jitney Palisades-Olympic route, Etcheverry said they weren't. Councilman Del Wilson asked angrily, "If the equipment's good enough for the Palisades run why isn't it good for Stonestown (second route sought by the jitneys)?"

Not Satisfactory

"I didn't say the Palisades route would be adequate," answered the merchants president. "I don't feel the jitneys are satisfactory."

Councilman Paul Hupf chided Wilson for criticizing the merch-

WOMAN NIPS PURSE THIEF'S HAUL: SHE HIDES 'EXTRA' $32

A 44-year-old Daly City woman outsmarted a youthful purse snatcher late Tuesday night and saved $32 by her quick thinking.

Mrs. Elvina Carmona, 44, a machine operator of 474 Evergreen street, lost her purse and $1.15 change to a youth about 17. But the culprit was deprived of her additional cash.

The victim said she suspected something when a car full of juveniles cruised past her several times as she was walking home from a bus stop. She took the $32 out of the purse and placed it in her pocket. The juvenile, who jumped out of the car and grabbed the purse, missed out on the bigger haul.

$425,000 SITE?

Doelger Plans Tract On Land Sought For School

Tentative map for a 150-home "exclusive" residential section in the Westlake park basin site was submitted to the Daly City planning commission Tuesday night by Henry Doelger Builder, Inc.

The 17-acre tract of $25,000 to $30,000 homes would be located where the Jefferson Elementary School district hopes to construct a 12-classroom school. The basin lies between Lake Merced Alemany boulevards and the 17 acres of level property is north and adjacent to Daly City's new park.

Should the elementary school board decide at their regular meeting next Wednesday to purchase the site, negotiations for acquisition of the Doelger land are expected to be lengthy and difficult. Doelger has placed an estimated value of $25,000 per acre for the land. At this price the site would cost the school district an all-time record $425,000.

Aware of Plans

B. Poncetta, vice president of the Doelger firm, said his company was aware of the district's tentative plans for use of the land as a school site.

"We're still going to proceed with our subdivision plans," he declared. "We can't wait for them to decide what they want to do. We'll probably submit a revised map at next month's planning commission meeting." Poncetta said there had been no negotiations with the school district as yet. He revealed, however, that two other private schools had approached them for purchase of the once undesirable "sump" property. Poncetta said value of the land had been enhanced many times because of his firm's part in construction of an expensive outfall drain, filling and grading operations.

State Approval

David Shapiro, school district assistant superintendent, said that while the school board had not formally approved the basin site, it had directed soil studies and had secured oral approval of the state, which will finance purchase of the site and the school construction.

Shapiro said the board had contacted Doelger by letter and planned to get together for negotiations in approximately two weeks. He estimated that the district would need all of the 17 acres for the school, which would contain 12 classrooms, one kindergarten, and future expansion space for six more classrooms and a kindergarten. It would also include space for an administration unit.

The district is now 18 classrooms short in that portion of Westlake, according to a recent Stanford survey, Shapiro said.

Most Expensive Site

Should the land be purchased at anything near the value placed on it by Doelger, it would be the most expensive school site in the district's history.

Poncetta said he was confident that the land would appraise at $25,000 an acre.

The district would not go to condemnations proceedings unless Doelger asked more than the appraisal price, acording to past policy.

Shapiro said Tuesday night was the first time he had heard of Doelger's plans for a subdivision in the basin.

Chamber Tax Protest Miffs DC Councilmen

Councilmen took umbrage Wednesday at a strongly-worded letter from the Chamber of Commerce opposing the sales tax on a "moral" basis.

The Chamber charged that by depositing sales tax funds for capital improvements, the public was being denied the prerogative of voting on the projects at bond elections. In effect, the Chamber added, a sales tax would raise the taxable limit past $1.

The C of C also claimed that the city had "overbudgeted by $134,000" to create a surplus fund. The letter declared the Chamber unanimously opposed to the sales tax.

Asked Councilman Del Wilson, "Where was the Chamber on the important Bay Rapid Transit bill? It would have placed a tremendous tax burden on the people yet we never heard a thing from the Chamber. All the other cities civic groups appeared to protest the transit bill."

Councilman Paul Hupf took exception to the "moral" claim, stating, "It's nothing of the sort. The law says we can tax up to $1 on property and still have a sales tax."

The Chamber's letter was "an attempt to mislead the people before the hearing Monday," according to Mayor Joseph Verducci. "Especially the part about us over—budgeting," the mayor declared peevishly.

Hupf said the Chamber letter "does not require a reply."

Car Dealer Drake In New Trouble

The trials of Thomas Drake, 27, local used car dealer whose escapades have brought him in several brushes with the law, will be compounded March 6 when the city attorney presents evidence to revoke Drake's used car license.

It will mark the first time that the city has attempted to revoke a dealer's license under the used car ordinance.

Grounds for the revocation will be the charge that Drake, who operates a business at 6854 Mission street, used illegal advertising to sell his vehciles. He was convicted in San Francisco superior court last year of violations of the business and professional code. He was arrested for advertising of cars for sale under a private individual's name instead of his firm name.

City Attorney Frank Blum will present his evidence at an adjourned meeting of the city council March 6, after which councilmen will decide what action should be taken.

Drake lives here at 32 Second avenue.

EDITORIAL

A Dangerous Amendment

A highly offensive and dangerous amendment has been introduced in the state legislature which would virtually emasculate the Brown act which provides citizens the enunciated right to attend all meetings of government bodies.

The bill is authored, perhaps unwittingly, by freshmen Assemblymen Louis Francis and Carl "Ike" Britschgi of the 25th and 26th Assembly district. Guiding force behind the legislation is the all-powerful League of California Cities.

We are appalled at their endorsement of this bill.

Under the present wording of the Brown, or "Secret Meeting" act, closed meetings are prohibited except when the governing board is discussing hiring or firing of personnel or examination of witnesses.

Under the amendment, councils and school boards would be permitted to hold executive sessions to "consider the settlement of any claim, the appraisal or acquisition of any property, preliminary reports from chief executive or administrative officers."

Original intent of the Brown act was to define public rights which already existed. Addition of the amendment would nullify the act so that governing boards would have to give only lip service to the public's inherent right to know.

Section 54950 of the Brown act itself states, "The people of this state do not yield their sovereignity to the agencies which serve them. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created."

Under the Britschgi-Francis amendment, the governing body would be given the authority to decide "what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know."

The assembly interim committee, headed by Assemblyman Ralph Brown, which investigated "loopholes" in state law in 1952, found that legislative bodies were evading the requirements of a public meeting by holding meetings "under the guise of a variety of names, such as executive sessions, meetings of the committee of the whole, work sessions, and others.

"At gatherings such as these, deliberations and determinations regarding matters affecting the public are made. The subsequent public meetings are a mockery, a mere formality and a repetition of matters already decided at the prepublic meetings."

The authors of the amendment say their proposed change has been endorsed by Brown.

We can not understand this since this new "license" for closed meetings which the amendment would provide contradicts the intent and purpose of the original act as expressed by Brown and his committee.

The right of the public to know what their elected representatives are doing far supersedes any dangers that might be encountered in making public information on "appraisal or acquisition of property or preliminary reports from chief executive officers."

The Britschgi-Francis amendment to the Brown act has been referred to the committee on municipal and county govenment.

It should go no further.

DC Woman, 45, Gets $5000 For Injuries

Mrs. Katherine Toner, 45, a waitress of 287 Los Olivos avenue, last week was awarded a $5000 judgement against the city of San Francisco by a jury verdict in the court of Superior Judge Eustace Cullinan.

The woman had sued the city for $25,000 after suffering injuries when she tripped and fell in a street hole at Fourth and Mission streets in April of 1954.

Redwood City OK's Sales Tax Over Protests

Redwood City became the county's fourth municipality to formally approve the one-cent sales tax Monday when they aproved the controversial measure, 5-2, before heavy citizen protest.

Other communities that have approved the tax are Menlo Park, Belmont and San Carlos.

S.R.O. Crowd Predicted; Fund Legality Questioned

Attorneys for the Committee Opposed to Sales Tax are investigating the legality of sales tax ordinances which provide that some of the funds will be set aside to reduce general property taxes.

Thomas Noonan, local C.O.S.T. chairman, said that where a provision is made by ordinance for using sales tax funds to reduce property taxes, a question of constitutionality exists.

The theory of C.O.S.T., he explained, is that it is illegal to take funds paid out by one group of persons to reduce the taxes paid by another group. In other words, some persons who might be subject to sales tax do not pay property taxes. Thus, their funds might be used to permit another group to pay lower taxes.

"Good Opinions"

"We have very good opinions that this type of ordinance is unconstitutional," Noonan declared.

Daly City councilmen have proposed such a property tax-reducing ordinance should the sales tax be approved here. Under the Daly City plan, 25 per cent of the sales tax revenue would go to reducing property taxes and 25 per cent to cutting bonded indebtedness, the remainder for capital outlay.

Noonan said a test case would be made for the City of San Carlos when its sales tax ordinance takes effect.

The San Carlos ordinance has been delayed because of a legal technicality in failure to read the new law in full at a public meeting and therefore will not take effect April 1, as scheduled.

Referendum Invalid?

Meanwhile, James Morton, member of a San Mateo law firm, has indicated that efforts of petitioners in San Carlos to force the sales tax issue to a referendum vote may be in vain.

Morton holds that the sales tax comes under general tax rights of a city and, as such, is specifically exempt from referendum procedure.

He said, however, that the San Carlos matter would probably go to court for a legal determination before it is settled—both on the validity of the referendum and the use of sales tax funds for reducing property taxes.

A standing-room-only crowd is predicted Monday night when the Daly City council holds a public hearing on the much-debated issue of a one-cent municipal sales tax.

A group of citizens opposing the tax has already started distribution of leaflets urging attendance at the hearing. Committee Opposed to Sales Tax, a county-wide organization vigorously battling the special levy, has promised to send a contingent of debaters to the hearing.

Daly City merchants, most vociferous of the opponents, have indicated they will turn out in full force Monday to protest the new tax.

But in the face of widespread opposition, the council majority still appears to back sales tax. Only Councilman Sanford Vickers has placed himself on record as opposing the tax.

Verducci, Wilson Favor

Both Mayor Joseph Verducci and Councilman Del Wilson have spoken in favor of the tax since it was first proposed here last year. Councilman Paul Hupf has also indicated he will go along with it if specific provision is made for expenditure of the estimated $280,000 that would be gained annually from the sales tax. Councilman Michael De Bernardi has made no definite commitment, but has appeared to lean toward adoption of the sales tax in comments made at previous meetings. It was at his suggestion that a preliminary meeting on the sales tax was held last week to outline how the money would be spent.

⅓ For Capital Outlay

Should the tax be adopted, the council proposes to place half of the money derived from it in a capital outlay fund. The fund would be established by ordinance and would stipulate that the money could not be spent for any other purposes other than those outlined in the ordinance without a vote of the people.

Other half of the funds would go to reduce taxes, through cutting property taxes and reducing the bonded indebtedness, according to a statement of policy issued by the council at their February 6 session.

Daly City merchants will be represented at the hearing by Attorney John Putkey. Representatives of labor groups and C.O.S.T. are expected to be out in force.

The hearing begins at 8 p.m. at the council chambers, 75 Wellington avenue.

PUC JITNEY HEARING ON NEW ROUTES HERE NEXT THURSDAY

State public utilities commission will conduct a public hearing at city hall next Thursday morning at 10 a.m. on application of Northgate Transit Co. for two new jitney routes.

One route would extend the service to Stonestown, while the other would cover the Olympic and Palisades areas in Westlake.

The council, which earlier had decided to oppose the Stonestown route, is expected to back the application, after voicing an official change of heart last week.

High Board Sets Bond, State Loan 'Package' Monday

Size of the "package" May 17 bond issue and state loan election, and what approvel will mean to voters in tax increases, will be determined Monday night by Jefferson Union High School district trustees.

Superintendent Edward D. Morgan, wrapping up final estimates on both issues this week, has approximated the bond issue at $2¾ million and the loan at $3½ million.

The bond issue will bond the district to capacity for the next four years, while the state request covers a maximum two - year period.

Passage of both issues at the polls is necessary if the district is to have funds to complete Westmoor High, ready a third high school in Sharp Park by the fall of 1960, and meet other financial commitments.

Monday's decisive meeting starts at 7:30 o'clock in the superintendent's office, 375 South Mayfair avenue, room 214.

Repeat Protests On 'Open' Cop Job

As expected, the "overdue" public hearing by the personnel board on the creation of the assistant chief of police job here drew a lively protest Monday night in the council chambers.

A crowd of approximately 35 citizens, most of them city employees, heard officer Lester Bastedo, representing the Daly City Police and Firemen's association, oppose the "open" examination for the post. The "open" status would make non-residents eligible to apply.

"If the job is determined on an open basis," Bastedo declared, "members of the force here have little chance. None of us could qualify. It defeats the procedure of advancing in the ranks. You'll find that most Bay Area assistant police chief appointments are made on a promotional basis, within the ranks."

Members of the personnel board, who announced they would take no action until their next meeting in March, made no comment on Bastedo's remarks.

Previously, both the personnel board and city council approved the open exam, despite protests from the police and firemen's group, which recently voted in favor of making all city jobs promotional within individual departments.

The assistant police chief job will involve a salary outlay of from $542 to $628 a month. Applicants must have at least three years of college training in criminology or police administration, two years experience in an administrative capacity on a police department, and general knowledge of methods used in modern police administration.

The board also read requirements on the new position of police captain, to be filled by a member of the current force on a promotion basis. Candidates must have six years of law enforcement experience, two of which were in a supervisory capacity, and must be high school graduates or the equivalent. Top applicant for the job is Lieut. Roy Beecher. Salary range for the position is $468 to $542.

Repeating its recommendations for two job title changes in the fire department, the board heard a protest by Councilman Micheal De Bernardi. The latter reminded that changing the titles of three captains to "battalion chiefs" would "put the city in a bad situation for future wage scale negotiations." Starr Dunham, acting board chairman, answered by saying that the city "should conform to the practice used in other municipalities."

The board is expected to approve the title switch to "battalion chiefs" and the designation of "captain" for six openings for fire equipment operators. The new titles would not affect duties or salaries.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy asked the board to consider letting applicants for the captaincies who lack the high school education "equivalency" take the exams and put them on probationary status until they complete the educational requirements. The board appeared favorable, but will make its decisions known at its next meeting, when final recommendations will be forwarded to the city council.

Also taken under consideration by the board was Shelby Ross' request that his work week as meter reader be cut from 44 to 40 hours, with a corresponding decrease in pay.

Judge Draper Named To District Court

San Mateo county superior judge Murray Draper was named this week by Governor Goodwin Knight to fill the vacancy on the district court of appeals.

Judge Draper has served intermittently on the district court bench since April, 1955. The 50-year-old jurist will fill the vacancy created by resignation this week of Justice John T. Nourse of Palo Alto.

Redwood City attorney Wayne Millington, active in Republican politics, was named Draper's successor to the superior court bench.

Judge Draper was appointed to the superior court bench here in 1949 by the then Governor Earl

Ordinance Valid On Peter St. Rezoning, Judge Draper Holds

The ordinance which permitted Daly City to rezone a residential bumper strip on Peter street to commercial status is valid, Superior Judge Marry Draper ruled this week.

The city, Neville Motors and William and Ricco Lagomarsino were named defendants in a suit filed last August by three Peter street couples—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wendt Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Boxum and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Hein.

They charged that zoning of a portion of Peter street to make way for Neville's automible business would constitue a "public nuisance, create a traffic hazard and depreciate property values."

They asked for the judge to issue a writ of mandate ordering the city to show cause why it allowed the rezoning and demanded that the ordinance be held invalid.

Draper's ruling on the legal points was that the city had made no unlawful delegation of authority in allowing Neville Motors to petition for rezoning while they were still not legal owners of the land.

The judge will, however, allow attorneys for the petitioners to bring on any specific points of illegality they might wish to argue.

Arguments on these issues will be heard sometime next week in Judge Draper's court.

City Joins Protest On Rapid Transit

Daly City joined 10 other San Mateo county cities this week in protesting the proposed Bay Area rapid transit bill before the state legislature.

County Manager E. R. Stallings summed up the majority opposition during a series of meetings wednesday in San Francisco. He charged that the county cannot afford the rapid transit program, stating, "We believe that the property tax burden has about reached the saturation point within our community."

City Manager Howard Stites and representatives of 10 other county cities voiced their opposition Tuesday in Redwood City. South San Francisco and Woodside made no official stand on the bill, while San Bruno asked that no action be taken by the county pending further study.

try to get it as reasonable as possible, but we want to pay a fair price," Shapiro said.

Commissioners took no action on the tentative map but are expected to vote on the application at the March 12 session.

In other action Tuesday the commission:

Zanone Zoning

1. Recommended zoning a portion of the Zanone lands commercial but withheld action on other parcels pending determination by Jefferson Elementary School district of its site needs in the vicinity.

2. Acted favorably on request of Harry Stutz for use permit to operate a "kiddieland" amusement park on the northwest corner of 89th and Junipero Serra. The business would include a merry-go-round and other rides for children of from three to nine years.

3. Discussed informally the United Brethren church's tentative plans for construction of a church in Westlake. They are negotiating with Doelger for purchase of a site.

Westlake 10

4. Received tentative map of Westlake unit 10 west of Skyline and withheld action on request of the elementary school district, which claims additional school site property is needed in the area.

5. Re-affirmed their approvel of the original Westlake library branch site on the south side of Southgate avenue.

6. Recommended annexation of 4.6 acres of Doelger property west of Junipero Serra adjacent to the Zanone lands.

7. Received letter from Woodlawn Memorial park citing Colma Creek drainage problems allegedly caused by run-off from the McKeon land.

8. Established hearing March 12 for zoning of property in Westlake units 8-C and 8-D from unclassified to R-3 and R-1.

9. Recommended granting of use permit for parking lot adjacent to 6572 Mission on application submitted by Sett C. Casini.

Office Building

10. Recommended approval of variance to construct a two-story office building on the southeast corner of Mission and Como streets. Applicant was Harry C. Curusis.

11. Received survey of needs from Hahn, Wise and Associates and agreed to hold a special meeting on the proposal at a later date.

12. Set hearing March 12 on application of Romolo Blasi to rezone property at corner of Bellevue, Templeton and Acton from R-1 to C-1 to allow expansion of a grocery store.

13. Recommended approval on application of Vannucci Bros. Construction Co. for use permit to establish concrete plant on Doelger property west and south of the Zanone lands.

14. Approved annexation of the Daly City pound and reservoir site.

ants, arguing "We should thank the merchants for their constructive approach." Hupf also said he did not think the city should take any stand on the route change applications before the PUC next week. "The Stonestown route is a matter of differing opinions in the community and the decision rests with the PUC," Hupf related.

This marked still a new approach to the jitney applications, since at one time the council agreed to formally oppose the Stonestown run, later deciding to "reconsider" and perhaps speak on its behalf before the PUC.

No Commitment

The issue was closed without a formal commitment from the council for or against the jitney's Stonestown route.

Monday night will be the council's last opportunity to decide which tack it will take at the Thursday jitney hearing.

Other items considered at Wednesday's study session included:

1. Establishment of March 18 for joint meeting with planning commission and Hahn, Wise & Associates to study preminary report on Daly City's land use planning needs.

2. City's share in installing Alemany traffic signals, which has been estimated by the state at $18,995.

3. Letter from Chamber of Commerce asking city's cooperation in obtaining north county health center.

4. Purchase of Westlake library branch site.

5. Refunds of $5 water deposits to users who had received service more than one year.

County In Dark

6. Agreement for construction of drainage facilities on Edgemar road near Broadmoor. City Manager Howard Stites said the county supervisors had not been informed of Supervisor Thomas Callan's commitment to have the county bear 20 per cent of the cost.

7. Ordinance amendment which would allow pet stores to sell rabbits, chickens and ducks. Councilmen expressed no objection to the amendment.

8. Deduction of union dues from city employees payroll. Councilmen said they would approve the union request if the majority of the employees desired it.

9. Recommendations on eight items from the planning commission, which will be voted on Monday.

10. Resolution appointing Otis Calhoun as city engineer and superintendent of streets.

11. Introduction of ordinancing zoning St. Francis Heights.

SF Man, 27, Fined $150 For Stealing License Tags Here

Eugene N. Schultenover, 27-year-old San Francisco salesman, was fined $150 in municipal court Tuesday after pleading guilty to the theft of six 1957 license tags from the motor vehicle office here February 1.

Judge Thomas L. Bocci suspended a 30-day jail sentence on condition he pay the fine.

Schultenover walked off with the tags while a clerk was confirming his check with Stanley H. Seaton, office manager.

In other court action, Aaron J. Dykman, 33, a brick layer of 196 Wellington avenue, pleaded not guilty to drunk driving here February 8. His trial by jury was set for March 26.

Forfeiting bail on drunk charges were: George H. Buttle, 226 Crocker avenue; James J. Cross, 824 Thornhill drive; George F. Gigli, 744 Midway avenue; Joyce M. Selle, 737 Bellevue avenue; Francis H. Shryne, 656 Bellevue, and Hershel Speck, 646 San Diego avenue.

Wiegner's 'Buddy' Fails In Second Suicide Attempt

Jesse Eastman, 35-year-old accomplice of Mike Wiegner in the "kidnap" incident here, was back in Community hospital today after he flunked a second suicide try Wednesday morning in county jail.

Eastman on Monday pleaded not guilty in superior court to a series of charges by reason of insanity. That night, he attempted to end his life by slashing his left elbow with a razor blade. Returned to his cell, he repeated the act Wednesday morning, this time inflicting three razor wounds on his wrist and right forearm.

Eastman's case will continue in superior court following a report on his sanity by psychiatrists.

Wiegner, now at Atascadero State hospital for mental treatment, also tried suicide while held in county jail. He swallowed two safety pins.

Mike's bride, Clo Ann, was ordered to the Convent of the Good Shepherd in San Francisco after Superior Judge Murray Draper termed her an "incorrigible runaway."

Vickers Denied Damages In 1953 Train Smash-up

A Santa Clara county superior court jury ruled against Councilman Sanford Vickers Monday in his suit for $10,000 against a trucking firm.

Vickers, a railroad engineer, filed the claim as a result of a smash-up March 23, 1953, in Mountain View involving a Miles & Sons cement truck and a Southern Pacific freight train on which he was serving as fireman. Vickers was hospitalized as result of the accident.

While the jury exonerated Vickers and Frank Barker, who served as engineer, of any liability in the wreck, they ruled against the two railroad men's cross-complaint for damages against the trucking firm.

The Southern Pacific was awarded $10,000 damages from the Miles company. They had sought $49,000.

Query DC Youth, 15, For 'Molesting' Kids

A Daly City youth, 15, is under investigation by police this week on charges of raping a six-year-old girl and molesting her nine-year-old brother.

Parents of the alleged victims claim the children were molested by the boy Monday afternoon at Marchbanks Park. After questioning, the children said their assailant had assaulted them before on numerous occasions, threatening to beat them if they told their parents.

BOOK SF TEAMSTER HERE FOR DRUNKEN DRIVING, SPEEDING

Walter W. Grove, 53-year-old San Francisco teamster, was charged with drunk driving and speeding here early Sunday morning after he allegedly drove his panel truck into a car parked at 6154 Mission street.

Officer George Brooks made the arrest at the corner of Crocker and Mission streets. Grove flunked a sobriety test at the police station.

The teamster was released on $500 bail to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

'Pinewood Derby' Highlights Pack 63 Annual Pot Luck

A "pinewood derby" highlighted the recent successful pot luck dinner held by Cub Pack 63. The pack was well represented with Cubs and their families at the annual function.

Bill Cunningham won the derby, followed by Roger Johnson and Todd Hunter. All three received awards for their efforts.

Paul Anderson was inducted as a new pack member while rank advancements went to the following: Alex Matson, James McClung, Steve Johnson and Bill Radford, wolf badge; Joe Gordon, lion badge; Errol Ferniss, lion badge with a gold arrow; John De Graff, two-year-pin and gold arrow; Dick Holmberg and Lowell Williams, gold and silver arrow.

David Westphal and Albert Clugna are new members of the Webelos den.

Boys graduating from the Webelos into the Boy Scouts were Joe Gordon, John Kerekes, Bill Cunningham and Lowell Williams.

Dens 1 and 2 presented their minstrel show while the Webelos den put on a flag program. Boys participating were Lowell Thomas, Errol Ferniss, Kenneth Iwahashi, Bill Cunningham, John De Graff, Herb Ashton, John Kerekes and Joe Gordon.

Thanks were extended to Cubmaster Bill Shelver for planning the program.

Mesdames Mason, Kerekes and Cunningham officially retired as den mothers.

"How old am I?"

asks Mrs. Larry Salzman
134 Santa Barbara, Daly City, California

It's a fact: A girl's best friend is her mother. Especially today, when so many mothers look and feel almost as young as their daughters.

What keeps them so youthful? Modern household appliances are a big help. They "take over" the heavy chores that once aged women long before their time.

Take Mrs. Salzman (that's daughter Geraldine on the right). This young-looking mother leaves most of her hard work to labor-saving appliances. She's 33.

Here's the beauty of it: With P. G. and E.'s bargain rates for gas and electricity you can run a houseful of appliances all day for just half the price of a bottle of hand lotion!

ELECTION OF OFFICIALS BY DISTRICT

This week the county grand jury expressed an almost unanimous opinion that election of county supervisors should be by district rather than at large.

The theory is that, "If a man cannot please the electors of his own district, he should not hold office," according to the personal comment of one of the jurors.

We hold that the same reasoning applies to municipal government. A councilman should represent his specific district and not the city at large. Thus equal representation is assured to all portions of the city.

Decades ago when the city encompassed only a few square miles, the at-large method served adequately.

But today, as the city has spread itself over miles of previously uninhabited territory, the need for localized representation has presented itself on many occasions.

Another logical argument for district election was voiced by the juror in pointing out that costs of campaigning become prohibitive on a county-wide basis. The high costs of politicking are also becoming evident on a municipal level. Under district election candidates who ran from a specific section would only have to campaign in that particular area. Thus, qualified men who may have shunned candidacy because of the excessive costs or a reluctance to accept contributions from large private interests, might be induced to run for office if they could finance their own campaign.

District representation was proposed by this newspaper recently in urging the adoption of charter form of government.

Under charter government this city would be able to change the election system to provide for election of councilmen from the city's logical subdivisions. Boundaries of the political subdivisions would be decided by freeholders and the electorate in drafting the charter.

Revision of the council election system is only one of the many advantages offered by the charter form of government.

But it is a major one and points up the extent to which "home rule" is possible under a city charter.

W'lake's Bob Dwyer Gives New Hope To Palsied Kids

By Gwin Mitchell

Not so long ago, a 20-year-old boy who, because of cerebral palsy, had never been able to communicate with others, wrote his name. All he had to do was nod his head, and electricity did the rest.

Electricity could do the rest because several people worked on this problem in the idea stage, in the phoning and conferring stage, and finally in the actual building stage of a new machine. Basically, it is a combination of an electric typewriter and a converted pinball machine, in which letters on a large board light up one at a time and an electrical impulse types the same letter on paper. The connecting link is the 20-year-old boy, who wears a special headpiece containing a mercury switch; when he nods, the electrical impulse is put into motion. The one machine currently in existence was made by the Advance Automatic Sales company in San Francisco, and plans are already under way to build another—and faster—one.

Local Innovator

A Westlake resident has had quite a bit to do with the idea and legwork stages of this boon to the cerebral palsied. He is Robert S. Dwyer, a 32-year-old teacher at the School for Cerebral Palsied Children of Northern California, on Lake Merced boulevard, who has been working with the children there, both in the classroom and in the residence dormitories, for two years.

Born and brought up in Florida, he left his home in Ft. Lauderdale for service with the Navy and the Merchant Marine during the war, and it was in 1946, when he came to San Francisco to wait (literally) for a ship to come in, that he became a Californian. Instead of shipping out, he stayed and went to work. In time, he was floor manager and film editor for TV station KPIX; at the same time, he was attending classes at San Francisco State college. Sometime before that, he toured veterans' hospitals all over the United States, and in France and Germany, in the musical "Brigadoon," playing a feature role.

Even with the full days' work he put in at KPIX, Bob finished college in three years, and did his first teaching at John Swett elementary school in San Francisco. From the beginning, however, Bob knew that he wanted to work with handicapped children, to be able to give more attention to his pupils as individuals, and to fill their specific needs. Then, too this field of teaching the handicapped, where new patterns of education must be constantly developed, appealed to his pioneer instinct and his wish to explore and build creatively with the children he taught.

Tutors Handicapped

Thus it was that he taught first at the Charles Whitton School for physically handicapped children in Oakland, and then came to the School for Cerebral Palsied Children. Currently, he is working with a group of seven boys from 10 to 20 years old, helping them adjust to a world of such social commonplaces as recreation, dormitory life, dining, and other ordinary phases of living which are taken for granted by most people. What is more important, he also helps them to create places for themselves in society as whole individuals, and to develop a reasonable degree of self-sufficiency in dealing with the world around them.

The San Francisco School for Cerebral Palsied is one of two in the state, the other being in Altadena, in southern California. Each school is a source to which children from the northern (or southern.. parts of the state come for observation, treatment and education, and from which recommendations go out in answer to problems referred by day schools for handicapped children in outlying communities.

It is a residence school, providing a total home-school environment for a present total of 35 pupils, and the staff relationships with the children are, if anything, more important outside the classroom than in. There are dormitories, with rooms for two or four children, play yards, classrooms, occupational and physical therapy rooms, and a speech department. Physical treatments must be integrated with the child's desire to be successful in his social and educational growth, so that he best derive his own concept of himself as a whole person. Usually, a child attends for a year, and his parents may visit at any time. There are even facilities for parents to stay right at the school, if necessary.

Individual Attention

Cerebral palsied children are as different as plants in a garden, each needing a particular kind of care and teaching approach to help him discard the often overwhelming dependency characteristic of handicapped children, and a great deal of understanding and patience is needed on the part of teachers and therapists. The patience comes mostly, Bob Dwyer says, in not interfering when a simple problem in daily living must be approached step by slow step, the children thinking out each action for themselves. Impatience here could slam shut the slowly opening door of adjustment, or at least prevent it from opening any further without a longer period of work.

This, then, is Bob Dwyer's chosen profession, and he finds it a rewarding one, particularly when he sees one of "his" boys now successfully running a sundries stand by himself, and another, capable of doing excellent janitorial work, with a job in the offing.

Equally rewarding to him is his position as husband and father in the home at 42 Seacliff, where his pretty blonde wife, Joan, presides over the homemaking and cares for Christine, age 8, and Mary Jo, not quite 2. She also bakes her own bread, to the wholesale delight of her family. Bob takes painting and gardening, likes poetry and good music, and thoroughly enjoys a good game of tennis, with Joan to join him. This year he and she have taken on an additional interest in serving as school education co-chairmen for the James L. Snell PTA.

HELPING OTHERS is the lifetime profession chosen by Robert S. Dwyer, Westlake resident, who is a teacher at the School for Cerebral Palsied Children on Lake Merced boulevard. He supervises the training of approximately 35 youngsters.

Broadmoor Plea For Utility Rate Cut Before PUC

Broadmoor's request for a lower PG&E rate classification, denied by the utility company, has been appealed to the state public utilities commission, attorney Thomas Jenkins told directors of the Broadmoor Property Owners association last week.

Jenkins said the PUC had agreed to survey the Broadmoor area to determine if its growth and density of population warranted a lower PG&E rate. Broadmoor is classed as a rural area by the utility, a category that has been on the books since before the residential community was developed.

In other action last Thursday, directors:

1. Drafted letter of commendation for Warren Vocke, instigator of the February 10 Scout parade, for his "exceptional service to Broadmoor."

2. Announced purchase of two dozen new baseball uniforms at cost of $225 for youth of the Broadmoor area.

3. Learned that engineer Edwin Smith has offered his services free to survey Broadmoor's drainage needs and recommend permanent corrective measures.

Fete Westview Wife With Baby Shower

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Jeanne Moore of Westview was held Saturday at the home of her mother, Mrs. James W. Moore, of 116 DeLong street in San Francisco.

Attending were the Mesdames: Mary Torres, Cora Rogers, Jane Herberth, Sheila Raffo, Gloria Tonge, Essie Galvin, Marcia Meyers, Peggy Mayo, Mary Ann Madden, Bea Aaron, Dorothy Bowen, Marie Barker, Dixie Hawkins, Donna Taufer, Emily Del Pogetto and Victoria Moore.

The mom-to-be received many gifts for the new arrival. Buffet dinner topped the festivities.

Sewage Centrifuge Problems Studied

Recurring trouble in the North San Mateo County Sanitation district's treatment plant centrifuge was taken up by directors Monday and a ful-fledged study of the problem was called for.

Engineer John N. Jenks and Robert White of the Byrd Centrifuge company will conduct a study of the equipment.

Only other action at Monday's meeting was approval of the U.S. Army's sewer connection at the Nike missile station on San Bruno mountain.

Draft of a proposed ordinance regulating drainage into sanitary sewers was held over.

The entrance to the Golden Gate is five nautical miles from San Francisco's Ferry Building.

CANCER GROUP SCORES 'PHONY' BID FOR FUNDS

In response to numerous inquiries, the American Cancer Society is not the beneficiary of subscriptions being sold on behelf of a San Francisco newspaper, Mrs. Albert A. Hedge, President of the San Mateo County Branch of the Society, said today.

"We have been incorrectly identified as the recipient of funds for a subscription promotion which is being carried on in behalf of another organization. The use of the American Cancer Society's name in connection with this promotion is completely unauthorized and erroneous. We are sure that the newspaper concerned is just as anxious as we are to prevent improper identification of the recipient, and we would appreciate a phone call from anyone who has information. The branch phone number is DI 3-8495."

Mrs. Hedge pointed out that the American Cancer Society raises its funds through memorials received throughout the year and through the April Cancer Drive for funds. Preparations for the April drive are now being completed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles E. Clotere, and it is expected that every home in San Mateo County will be contacted during the month of April.

Troop 243 Likes 'Roughing It' At Camp Lilianthall

Troop 243 Scoutmaster Harry Hettel, Asst. Scoutmaster Dan Brooks and Explorer Advisor Joel Cook, took their entire troop on a camping expedition over the weekend to Camp Lilianthall where all enjoyed camping, cooking over open fires, hiking and scoutcraft.

The following boys participated: Jack Durham, Fred Brooks, Robert Brooks, James Fair, Earl Smith, Stanley White, William Bruening, Gary Arnold, Danny Craig, John Day, Michael Drew, George Luna, John Ciabattari, Gilbert Dinsmore, Dennis Kelly, Glenn Loughner, John Marino, George Dahl, Terry Myers, Michael Ocampo, Jack Petric, Blair Tudor, Rickey Craig, Jimmy VonHaesler and Charles Thomas.

The boys erected a "pup tent city" slept in sleeping bags, cooked their own meals by patrols, and generally "roughed it." Scoutmaster Hettel reported no casualties and that all attended church services in nearby Fairfax Sunday morning.

The troop is sponsored by OLPH Men's Club.

Brisbane Voters Nix Hike In School Taxes

By the slim margin of three votes, 312 to 309, residents in the Brisbane Elementary School district Tuesday defeated a proposal to increase their tax rates by a maximum of 80 cents.

If carried, the measure would have allowed the district to tax each resident $2.45 for each $100 assessed property valuation, instead of the current $1.65 rate. Approval would have hiked total taxes to $2.18 per $100 valuation, highest rate in the county.

Approximately 1150 Brisbane residents were eligible to vote in Tuesday's election.

Jeff High PTA Presents Dinner To Bolster Funds

Jefferson Union High School district PTA will present a "vital" spaghetti dinner next Thursday night in the high school cafeteria to raise sorely needed funds for the present school year.

Members decided on the dinner during a special executive board session Tuesday night. According to Mrs. John Eckert, PTA president, the proceeds will be used to cover expenses through this June.

All local PTA members and friends are urged to attend the dinner. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12. Starting time is 6 o'clock, with the servings ending at 8.

St. Cecilia's Women Plan Parish Dinner

Members of the League of the Sacred Heart of St. Cecilia's Church will sponor their annual parish dinner at the school auditorium, 18th and Vicente streets, on Sunday, March 3, from 3:30 to 7 p.m.

Mrs. William Riley and Mrs. Matthew Breen, co-chairmen, invite individuals, families and groups. The dinner is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

Mrs. John McGinty, hospitality director says, "We have plans for the guests to sit down and be served." Hostesses assisting will be the president, Mrs. Arthur Strange, and Mesdames Patrick O'Callaghan, John Oldham, William Riley, Matthew Breen, John Merry, George Heeg, John Hanavan, George Stanley, Fred Bosio, John Douglas, John Casenave and Lloyd Ritter.

Proceeds from the dinner will help to buy linens, candlies, and appointments for the new altar at St. Cecilia's.

Reservations may be made through Mrs. McDonald, OV 1-4364, and Mrs. Terrence Boyle, OV 1-8986.

Franklyn K. Brann, well-known attorney, will speak on a very timely subject, "The Chrisis in the Mid-East," at the next meeting of Westlake Hadassah, on Thursday, February 28, 12:30 p.m., at the Henry Doelger Clubhouse, according to Mrs. A. Horne, program chairman.

Mrs. Russell Bliss, education chairman, also will speak. A short program will be presented in honor of Jewish Music Month.

Mrs. Henry Evans and Mrs. Ernest Smetana will be hostesses at the dessert luncheon to be served prior to the program.

Mrs. Fred Pollat, Hadassah president, will preside at the meeting, and she urges all members to attend. She also extends a welcome to all guests and residents of this area.

SF STATE EDUCATOR TO TALK ON RUSSIA AT TEMPLE METHODIST

Dr. Albert G. Fisk, professor of philosophy at San Francisco State College, wil give a lecture entitled "Twenty-nine Days Inside Russia," on Thursday evening, March 7, at 8 o'clock, in Temple Methodist Church.

Fisk, a well-known speaker on international affairs, travelled 18,000 miles throughout the Soviet Union in 1956. His first-hand report on politics behind the Iron Curtain will be illustrated with colored slides.

Sponsoring his appearance is the Co-Wed group of Temple Methodist Church. Admission is 50 cents.

Latest February stork news on Abbot finds the score two down and one more to go. After one unsuccessful attempt to meet the stork in less than a week, the NAVARRAS, "MIKE and VI," netted a daughter on their second trip to Mary's Help. DEBORAH MARY made her debut February 12, tipping the scales at five pounds, seven ounces. The baby (a redhead) is little sister of Carole, 13, Dennis, nine, and five-year-old Robby. Fred Lang in Lodi is the proud grandfather.

Daly City was well represented at the recent annual "Camp Fire" dinner given at the YMCA in Redwood City. The following mesdames attended the affair: Dorothy Peterson, Helen Fredericks, Barbara Plyer, Margaret Russi, Ann Craig, Marjorie Chaney, Margaret Kennedy, Marjory De Marco, Lorene Fillback and Dorothy Waldvogel.

Mrs. MARY HART observed her big day by breakfasting at the Cliff House as the guest of the Walter Oertwigs in San Francisco. She enjoyed the opportunity of meeting and talking to Max Baer, who presented her with an orchid corsage for her birthday. That evening the recipient was honored at a family buffet dinner party at her daughter's home on Parma. The very special occasion marked the birthday girl's 75th year.

Belated anniversary wishes to . . . LEROY and ETHEL DAVIS on Citrus for their ?? year as Mr. & Mrs. . . . Wyandotte's EVERETT and BARBARA SULLIVAN for their recent ninth one as a team . . . On Sunday, the ECKERT'S, "JOHN and JULIE," on Frankfort, will celebrate their 19th year of wedded bliss.

Next week, MRS. JULIE ECKERT on Frankfort, outgoing Peoria neighborhood chairman for Brownies and Girl Scouts, plans to entertain the leaders and committee members at her home, in appreciation of their cooperation and assistance during her two years as head of the group. JULIE'S sincere "thank you's" will go to the following invited mesdames: Frances Windhurst, Marge Calvin, Audrey Sallade, Betty Maschinot, Kathleen Ricci, Elinor Vinal, Dorothy Carr, Ruth Welker, Muriel Keith, Jan Gilmore, Mercedes Laureno, Marge Russi, Hap White, Marge Rymarkiewicz, Alice Gonzales, Evelyn Moseman, Ann Ingersoll, Eleanor Snyder, June Bianchini, Betty Hall, Joyce Ahuna and Dolores Sooman.

The newly appointed chairman, Mrs. Windhurst, is well qualified, having a background of 18 years of Scouting experiences.

Can you top this . . . LEE LESHER on Castle, a February birthday gal, ushered in her added year in grand style. Day of her birthday Feb. 7), two of her neighbors, Nin Sarrubi and Inez Baldassari, surprised her by taking her to lunch. Later in the afternoon, Lee's sister Reba Noera, sister-in-law Jayne Cvitanich, and Lavarne Clayton dropped in with a luscious cake. . . . Two days later, LEE was greeted with another surprise event, when she entered her home and found 16 friends awaiting her arrival. Dad had cleared the way by taking his birthday girl and daughters to dinner at Joe's in Westlake. Last Wednesday, LEE was honored by the members of the "BIRTHDAY CLUB" at a luncheon party, given by Mrs. Jackie Castle. So, all in all, I'd say that LEE had herself a ball—just for one little birthday.

"GREGORY ALLEN" is the name of the spanking new and first addition to the DE WAYNE SOARES on San Diego avenue. Master GREG checked in at five-twelve on February 9 at Mount Zion. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Alioto, in San Francisco, and Mrs. Evelyn Soares, of Westlake avenue.

Last week's birthday boy, BOBBY MICHAEL, on B street, Colma, welcomed his big day (sixth one) with an after-school party shared by playmates Frank Neilson, Gary Bernardini, John Seeman, Ellen Curtis, Steven Christiano, Tommy Meyers and Bobby's brother, Ronald.

A new heir and first son has taken up residence at the JOSEPH FOLGER home on Bellevue, along with a very proud and happy grandmother, Mrs. Anne Sturtevant. MASTER JOSEPH DWIGHT particulars: February 6 arrival, Kaiser hospital, weighing in at a (mere) nine pounds six ounces.

Saturday evening, the girl scouts in Troop 154 held their annual "DAD-DAUGHTER" event with a box supper and an investiture ceremony at Colma school. The brand new additions to the scouting family were: Linda Brown, Joanne Jacobson, Yvonne Mathieu, Margaret and Roberta Campos. During the evening, a first-year pin was presented to Pamela Wingate. A second-year pin went to Paula Jones, and three-year pins were awarded to Marie Horne, Susan Kirschner, Gail Young and Christina Christiano.

The most unhappy girl for this affair was Miss JUDY WILLOUGHBY on Abbot, who missed the fete for the first time, and forfeited the role of mistress of ceremonies.

Christening services recently were held at College City Presbyterian Church for MARTIN LESLIE, infant son of the FRANK MEYERS, C street, Colma. The private ceremony was witnessed by the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Albert Leslie, here visiting from Jacksonville, Florida.

Pop is a physical education teacher and head-football coach at Westmoor high.

Due to a sudden illness, KATHY TUHTON on Bellevue observed her tenth birthday party in bed, while her guests, Evelyn Langren, Toni Nemia, Cynthia Cannon and Joyce Ahuna enjoyed the party festivities without their birthday girl. Better luck next time, Miss Kathy!

The Girl Scouts in BADGER PATROL recently surprised their leader, MRS. DORIS OFFENBACH, at her home on Abbot with a going-away party and gift for her new home in Larkspur. The Scouters were Carole Bernardini, Linda Nofziger, Marilyn Brown, Sharon Carr, Priscilla Gruenwald, Karen Falk, Cynthia Lewin, Judy Willoughby, Diane Dunn, and the recipient's daughter, Linda. The girls were accompanied on their good luck mission by Connie Nofziger and Melda Brown.

March 23 is the date reserved for the coming marriage of Christine MacGinnis (in Sacramento) and Pvt. JAMES P. McCULLEN, now completing boot training at Fort Lewis, Washington. JAMES is the son of Mrs. Margaret McCullen on Thiers.

Some belated but happy birthday wishes to . . . Lowell's Louis Matteoda and WILLIAM J. DUNN . . . Mrs. VIOLET PERRY on Evergreen . . . Mrs. DOROTHY MADISON on San Pedro . . . ORLANDO CECCHI on Brunswick . . . PETER BOYLE on TEMPLETON . . . B street's Mrs. MARY EDGEMAN and GEORGE HILLMAN . . . Mrs. JEAN HATHAWAY and Mrs. BARBARA SULLIVAN on Wyandotte . . . Mrs. SHIRLEY ALTAMIRANO on W. Moltke . . . CHARLENE DEL SARTO on C street . . . Master STEVIE MERLO on Tiers . . . BRENT ROURK on Parma . . . and Abbot's . . . GAIL OFENBACH . . . MABEL LYNN HUELSE . . . LOLA GRAVES . . . and LYNN COMER.

Notes from here and there . . . MRS. HULDA ANDRESON is here enjoying a three-month visit with her daughter, LILLIAN CANNON, and family on Bellevue. This may turn out to be a permanent stay for our visitor from Boston, Massachusetts. The song "I Get Along Without You Very Well" is just the way that two-year-old JEFFREY MINI in Abbot feels after parting company with his tonsils at St. Francis hospital, while MELLISA MOLINARI on Bismark staged her coming out event at Kaiser hospital. . . .

The number's the same, so please call PL 5-5419 with your news!

St. Thomas More Ladies Eye Gala Fashion Luncheon

The otherwise quiet atmosphere of the Chukker restaurant in San Mateo will be anything but that come Saturday, March 2. Final plans have been made by the Ladies Sodality of St. Thomas More Parish for their luncheon and fashion show there on that date.

Children who will add a note of sweet and lively interest are: Nancy Galiata, Betty McKennon, Sheryl Palacious, Gary Solari, Carol Solari and Justin Mazzon.

Mrs. Otto Tipton urges that reservations be made today, if possible, as the Chukker has set a deadline for the luncheon. Persons wishing to participate in this gay, pre-Lenten affair should call Mrs. Eugene Cunningham, JU 5-7993; Mrs. James Flynn, JU 7-0836, or Mrs. Carl Davis, JU 6-3761, for reservations.

ADDING finishing touches to the many prizes which will be awarded at the dinner sponsored by Northern Peninsula Chapter, Women's American ORT, on March 2 in San Francisco, are event chairmen Mrs. Clifford Glicksman (left) and Mrs. Bernard Reinherz. The affair, with proceeds going to ORT'S world-wide rehabilitation programs, will be staged at Forest Lodge.

SIXTH GRADE
MRS. HECKMAN
By: Lorraine Bottarini, Joyce DiMaggio and Betty Fontenot

February 14, we had our Valentine party. We had it with our new teacher, Mrs. Heckman. Mrs. Yates and Mrs. Rowe, our room mothers, helped to plan our party and to serve refreshments. Our classroom decorating committee for our party was composed of Carolyn Aiello, Joyce DiMaggio, Lorraine Bottarini, Betty Fontenot, Dolores Yates and Cheryll Newman. It was very successful.

Our new teacher, Mrs. Heckman, is very nice to us. She is very eager to help us in our studies and activities.

There are new game leagues in our school—basketball for the boys and net-volleyball for the girls. The games are progressing very nicely.

We are going to decorate our room for George Washington's birthday, and hang a picture of him in the back of the room.

MRS. GOLDBERG
By Ronald Anderson

Our class is learning about Canada. We are learning about the first men to sail to North America and the first colonies started in Canada.

We have finished our noontime netball league and we are now playing two other games. The girls are playing net-volleyball and the boys are playing basketball.

Most of us have finished making our clay plaques and ashtrays. We gave these gifts to our families for Valentine's day.

ORT WOMEN 'RUSH' TICKET SALES FOR BIG DINNER DANCE

Tickets are "still available, but going fast" for the big dinner dance scheduled by Northern Peninsula Chapter, American Women's ORT, at Forest Lodge in San Francisco on Saturday evening, March 2, starting time 7 o'clock.

These are the words from dance chairmen Mrs. Clifford Glicksman, Mrs. Bernard Reinherz and Mrs. Bertram Solomon.

Proceeds will benefit the far-reaching programs of the ORT. These include scholarships, guardianships, and maintenance of overseas training programs. One of the group's biggest projects, a new center in Tel Aviv, is well under way. Also benefitting from ORT work are thousands of Hungarian refugees.

Individuals desiring tickets, should immediately contact any of three chairmen at PL 6-3266, OX 7-3821, or PL 5-0822.

Hillcrest Druids Set Whist Session Monday

The Druids of Hillcrest Circle 143 will present a Whist Party next Monday night at 8:30 o'clock in Masonic Hall.

A bushel of prizes will be featured. Chairmen for the affair are Mrs. Eleanor Wilson, Mrs. Rita Garabedian and Miss Maureen Schueszler.

CUB PACK 240 POTLUCK FETES SCOUT BIRTHDAY

At its recent monthly meeting, Cub Pack 240 held a Potluck Dinner commemorating the anniversary of Scouting. All table decorations emphasized the Blue and Gold of Cubbing and followed the "Onward for God and My Country" theme.

Den 3 was awarded the honor plaque. After the dinner, the following Cubs received awards: John Tuttle, wolf badge and wolf gold and silver arrow; Craig Castro, wolf badge; Howard Wright, wolf badge; Michael Ramsell, wolf badge; Billy Esmarch, two wolf silver arrows; Joseph Downey, bear badge and wolf silver arrow; Larry Karp, two wolf silver arrows; Garry Nelson, wolf silver arrow; Jerry Donovan, bear badge; Larry Jacobs, bear silver arrow.

Bobby Bishop was awarded the lion badge, thereby becoming the first boy in the Pack to achieve this rank. He also was awarded to bear silver arrows. Richard Niccitelli and Bobby Daniels received denner stripes and Paul Tufo and Jerry Donovan got assistant denner stripes. Frank Markovich recieved the recruiting segment to the San Francisco Council Emblem.

Mrs. Steigerwald's Den 2 presented a colorful skit on the history of the Pack.

Few Tickets Remain For OLM Barn Dance

Chairman Ray Forcina has announced that a few tickets for the annual Our Lady of Mercy Barn Dance to be held on March 2 are still available.

As the popular Surf Club, site of the dance is permitted to accomodate only a limited crowd, the ticket committee advises that interested persons contact them immediately to avoid dissapointment. Tickets can be obtained from the following persons: Bob Pepi, PL 5-6207; Jim Grealish, PL 5-8821; or Charlie Willin, PL 5-9563.

Maury Wolohan and his orchestra will provide music from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m.

Door prizes will be awarded. A clock radio and several other valuable prizes will be given away.

OLPH 'Jalopy Raffle' To Offer '48 Sedan

Ben Parodi, chairman of the OLPH Men's Club "jalopy raffle," today stated that a "beautiful 1948 four-door sedan, in excellent condition" will be given away April 5 at 8:30 p.m. in the OLPH school auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue. Tickets wil be available after Mass on Sundays.

Proceeds from the jalopy raffle go to the education, recreation and welfare activities for Daly City youth.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

The week of the Valentine has passed by, and small ones are still busy counting and sorting stacks of red-hearted sentiment, but somewhere in the middle of the hubbub, spring has crept quietly in and left a few tokens of her own. Villagers lucky enough to have flowering trees and bushes are reveling in the first blossoms, and others find their flower beds flooded with harlequin primroses and phimulas. And there were a few days—before the fog—which were absolutely dedicated to spring fever in full bloom!

Birthdays have been in full bloom, too. Jerry Perkins of Park Plaza marked his 7th with a sizeable party, complete with all the usual trimmings. Barbara Restivo, Chris Goodner, Chris Heard, Marilyn Thorne, Sandra Henley, Mark Davis, Bill Puddy, Diane Fernendez, Janice and Jane Weingard, Melinda Hart, Michael Barsotti, Linda Paimer, Vickie Desman, Paul Salgiver, and Paul and Debbie Galway were the delighted guests.

On Midway, Paul Gurwitz celebrated being 3 and Patty Ann McKenna celebrated being 4, and Roger Mattson and Linda Schmidt were happy because they went to both parties. Of course, Paul and Patty went to each other's party, and Leslie Grant was a guest of Paul's. Roxanne Reyes, Jan Carter and Michael McKenna were Patty's other guests. Patty also had a dividend in that her grandmother, Mrs. Lavina Stull, was visiting from Brush Prairie, Washington.

Having left Midway in somewhat of a muddle, we move on to Larchmont, where Susan Ecker turned 10, the age for having slumber parties, so she had one. We heard that it was quite a successful one, too, with guests there for dinner and breakfast, and actually getting sleep! Bringing sleeping bags to grace the Ecker floors were Nancy Kennedy, Judy Fanfelle, Janie Miller, Candy Dalzelle, Pamela Morgan, Deanna Dietrich and Janice Garretson.

Journey Around Town

After dying of curiosity for days watching all the digging, etc, going on at Ruth and Warren Brown's Stewart Avenue front lawn, we finally called and found out that the county was putting in a drain basin to prevent the yearly flooding which goes on the rainy season. All right—so we're snoopy! . . . Happy birthday to Roberta Taylor, Nimitz's own, who celebrated by going out to dinner with husband John . . . Marilyn Smith's beau for Mercy High's sweetheart dance was her father, Roy. They joined a group ot the Copperwood Lodge for dinner first. The Smiths are Madduxites . . . Ruth and Trevor Jones and family of Foothill have one of the cutest homes we've seen. Trevor put special paneling on the fireplace wall, and has just finished scraping down the kitchen cabinets and building new doors for them, with brass hardware on a natural wood finish. Dreamy . . . Congratulations to 8-year-old Mary Dunne of Nimitz for being honorably mentioned in a drawing contest in another paper . . . Villagers are talking about who was seen on the KPIX newsreel shots of The Parade, shown the Monday and Tuesday following. The BPOA has voted to order a 16 mm print, so that groups wishing to show the pictures may borrow the real to do so.

We were wondering why the police radio in Ray Savage's car was talking with a southern accent the other morning, and found out that our police receive calls for a department in Louisiana, of all places, and vice versa. They have also picked up Colorado, and on a certain block on Annie street, driving at a certain rate of speed, the radio will bring in KRON! Not only that, but Ray Logan's father, dispatching for the Sparks, Nevada, police department, can get the Broadmoor calls. What ubiquitous things radio waves are!

We'd like to wave a good luck wish in Bob Buchanan's direction. As of this week, he is in business for himself—the Peninsula-San Francisco Fast Delivery. He will cover the area from Burlingame to San Francisco, and hopes to enlarge his service farther down the peninsula in the future. He'll provide service for both wholesale and retail outlets. Bob's a Manila way-er.

Farewell Parties

Valentine's Day was the occasion for a reception at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church for the Rev. and Mrs. John A. Glasse, who will all too soon be leaving for the church at Carmichael (near Sacramento), where Mr. Glasse will be minister of visitation. About 150 people gathered in the social hall, where Inez Weibel had done a beautiful job of decorating the refreshment tables with red Valentine motifs and carnations. Charlotte Spruiell, Sibine Fairbanks, Lena Banfield, Jean Suenderman and Janet Rizzo were mainly responsible for the wonderful food and general hostess duties, and they are to be complimented. Mrs. Glasse looked beautiful in a new black dress, with a white orchid, and both the Glasses were overwhelmed with their gift of a Zenith trans-ocean radio. Mr. G. thinks he picked up Russia once already!

Previous to that evening, Sibine and Jim Fairbanks honored the Glasses with a dinner party. Guests at the Fairbanks' Garden lane home included Gordon and Annie Clare Grieg, John and Julia Rued, Rex and Charlotte Spruiell, Gus Zeige, and Mrs. M. Pauline Brown. And on the Saturday evening following the reception, Hortense and Lamont Sundman gave a dinner party at their new Millbrae Heights home, which has a terrific view of the airport and bay, and is a beautiful house, we hear. The Fairbanks, Spruiells and Gus Zeige were the guests who enjoyed the evening. Lamont is already planning projects to keep him busy around his new domain.

Sympathy

We would like to express our deepest sympathy to Gene Luttringer of Alder avenue and his two sons for the death of their wife and mother Agnes, who will be sadly missed by many friends and neighbors.

On the sick list this week, besides so many, many cases of measles, mumps and chicken pox among younger Villagers, is Cindy Muncie who has been battling the flu, and Ash Helmer, who has had a more serious problem which has put him in the hospital for a week. Hope these two and all the others who have been not quite up to snuff feel like themselves again soon.

We spoke of spring blossoms at the beginning, and some of the prettiest primroses we've seen are on the Daltons' Gilman front lawn. They, like all the other flowering plants, are the gifts of Joe Schultz, a gardener who counts the Daltons among his customers for lawn upkeep, and who often takes a little extra time to help out with handyman chores and small repairs. He is also a horticulturist of no mean ability.

Speaking of the Daltons, Betty is back home and blooming after her short stay in the hospital, and Dan is mighty glad to have her home. They, and we, are so happy about the response which has come in answer to their particular need; people's generosity has been heartwarming. So a bouquet to the Villagers and their Westlake, Daly City and Colma neighbors, with a special thank you card from the Daltons, Ray Savage, and us. In time, we hope to say that all the money has been raised and that work has begun; we don't think there's any doubt about that.

Special Dates

The Wright family on Washington has reason to remember the month of January—for of them, to be exact. One reason is that the newest Wright, Robert Donald by name, joined the family on Jan. 18. (He brought 9 lb 6 oz with him.) On Jan. 23, brother Reynold celebrated his second birthday, and on Jan. 24, other brother, Roland, celebrated his third. In on the brother act is father Dale, who had HIS birthday on Jan. 21st! Needless to say, there was one big family party. We found ourselves wondering if mother Jean could get a wholesale price on birthday cakes at the bakery!

Anniversaries around and about these days belong to Vin Murphy and to Mel and Tom Bocci. They decided to leave the celebrating until after the Holy Angels fashion show this weekend, and wait until the furor died down. Vi decided to have at least a Special Romantic Dinner at home, complete with candles, et al, and the children in bed, but somehow it didn't work that way! It turned out to be the children's party, after all!

We checked with Bob Buchanan about Operation Pine Seedlings, and learned that the 1000 trees given to Broadmoor citizens last Saturday were all gone in an hour and a half, and disappointed customers had to depart by the score, treeless. The BPOE is trying to help them out by diligently searching for more Monterey pines seedlings looking for adoption, and should have some word soon.

THREE GUESTS HURT AS BRAWL ENLIVENS WEDDING RECEPTION

Three guests, and maybe more, were injured Saturday night when a wedding reception at Westlake auditorium was spoiled by an old-fashioned brawl.

Most seriously hurt in the "unexplained" scrap was Chester Wilson, 38, a San Francisco shipyard worker. He was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for a fractured jaw, concussion and facial bruises, then transferred to St. Mary's hospital.

His niece, Mrs. Sau Tagoai, 21, and her husband, Ariv, 32, also of San Francisco, required treatment for multiple cuts and bruises.

Police weren't informed of the riot until hospital attendants phoned that they were treating the victims. Officer Robert Crooker, upon questioning the trio, learned that at least four other persons were involved in the tiff. No reasons for the fight were given, however.

Rev. Friedline Ends Talks On Lord's Prayer

At the Vista Grande Avenue Christian Church this Sunday, the Reverend J. Richard Friedline will preach on "God's Possession," the sixth and last of the series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer. There will be special music by the choir.

For all guests and members, cake and coffee will be served in Fireside Hall immediately following the morning worship service. Christian Youth Fellowship meets in the evening for high school age boys and girls.

Monday night, the Boy Scouts meet in Fireside Hall. The stewardship and finance commission, with Mrs. Esther Jay as chairman, will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Lila Pfleg, chairman of the educational commission, has called a meeting, while Clarence Rockey will direct a meeting of the worship commission. Mrs. Nell Hecker, chairman of evangelism, announces Wednesday evening to be a night of calling.

Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock, the monthly family dinner night will be held in Fireside Hall. All reservations must be made by Tuesday with Mrs. Lorene McKee, PL 5-2701. After the dinner, colored slides will be shown. The choir also will convene for rehearsal.

Rummage Sale Items Flow Towards OLPH

Bob Leiendecker, chairman of the OLPH Men's Club Rummage Sale to be held March 9, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., in the OLPH school auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue, reports that among the items already donated by merchants and residents are many household articles, clothing, appliances, work shop oddities, literary material and bric-a-brac.

Anyone wishing to help this rummage sale should call any of the following numbers for pick-up service: PL 5-2377, DE 3-7029, or PL 5-4673.

'DALTON DRIVE' DONATIONS HIT $191 THUS FAR

As of Monday, approximately $191 had flowed in from warmhearted residents in the community-wide drive to aid the Daltons of Broadmoor.

This was the promising report from drive chairmen Gwin Mitchell and Ray Savage, who are certain the response will prove sufficient to get the helpless couple a much needed door and ramp extension from their bedroom.

Original goal of $700 for the job may not be necessary. Several individuals have volunteered their labors. The new objective, according to carpenters' estimates on materials, is about $350.

Dan and Betty Dalton, of 1024 Gilman drive, have been left speechless by the response thus far. Unable to afford the project, their cause was espoused in the TIMES last week, and the drive is gaining momentum.

Persons who wish to donate should contact either Mrs. Mitchell, PL 5-0679, or Savage at the police department, PL 5-3838.

Contributors thus far are: William H. Berman, Mrs. J. M. Susoeff, Lily A. McEneaney, Alberta Siegel, Mark Swoverland, Mrs. Ramon Gomez, Henry Doelger Builder Inc., Peter J. Markovich, Mrs. Mae Haaland, Dr. Emmett Allen, Mrs. Wayne Morris, Gus Sebastiani, Mrs. Jane Stewart, Mrs. William Kitchen, Tom Pierce, Marie Mathieu, Elsie McLaren, the Rev. and Mrs. John A. Glasse, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mitchell, Savage, and one anonymous individual.

The money has been deposited in a local bank, and once the goal is reached, it will be put to good use.

Slate Big Potluck At OLPH March 2

A Potluck Dinner will be held in the auditorium of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school on Saturday night, March 2, beginning at 7 o'clock.

The affair will feature delicious salads, all kinds of casseroles, meats and desserts. Price of dinner will be 10 cents a serving for adults and 5 cents for children. Door prizes will be awarded. Dancing will follow the dinner.

Proceeds will be used to help reduce expenses of the forthcoming fashion show.

Everyone is invited to attend. Reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Howard Fredericks, PL 5-4087, or Mrs. John L. Peterson, PL 5-6479.

Italian Mission Opens Next Week At Colma's Holy Angels Church

Branch 19 of the Italian Catholic Federation will conduct its annual Italian Mission at Holy Angels Church in Colma, from February 25 to March 3.

The Mission will be preached by the Reverend Father Vincent Bonomi, O.S.J., director of the Auxiliary Mission Legion of the Italian Catholic Federation.

Evening devotions begin at 7:30 o'clock. All Italian-speaking people are cordially invited.

Village Play School Kids Enjoy Video Debut Under Guidance Of Gifted Tutor

By Mona Baker

The studio door opened, and a charming lady with a friendly smile stepped out and extended her hand to the waiting youngsters. "We're ready whenever you are." Without a moment's hesitation, their faces beaming, the children from the Village Play School trooped happily into the studio with their television teacher, Marian Koehler Rowe, for their appearance on "Adventure School" over KPIX.

Casually she showed them around the colorful set, gay with toys, books and paintings, but as air time drew near, the youngsters went quietly to the table as the strains of the "Adventure School" song signaled the beginning of another delightful program for the tricycle set.

Tops For Tots

Returning to the air over KPIX in December, "Adventure School" (Mondays through Fridays, 10 a.m.) is one of the outstanding children's programs in the country, and has received national awards from McCalls Magazine, and Ohio State University, as well as an award from the local Television Academy.

Mrs. Rowe, an experienced nursery school teacher; without any rehearsal or script, takes children whom she has just met, and for half an hour guides the youngsters through a delightful experience of sharing toys, creative games and activities, and music. As everyone knows, particularly parents of small tots, small children can be most unpredictable. But with her gentle, skillful approach, the program unfolds smoothly, and the children respond happily, sometimes not even aware they are on the air, even though all around them are cameras moving, cables and bright lights.

Fine Technique

In talking to Mrs. Rowe, we found her to be an extremely talented and modest person. Her first thought is always for the children, and she stresses the fact that she wants the program to be a relaxed and pleasant experience for them. We think mothers, and maybe even grandmothers, can learn from the program too, because of Mrs. Rowe's many constructive suggestions and ideas, as well as her skill in guiding children.

The many grateful letters from mothers emphasize how much their children enjoy the program, and how strongly they feel a part of it. She laughingly told us about an amusing incident related to her by a mother. The youngsters had just completed a valentine for daddy, when Mrs. Rowe suggested to her young viewers that they ask the mothers to leave the room because they were going to make a surprise valentine for her. There was a moment of silence in this particular household . . . the mother did not immediately leave . . . the child waited a moment, turned to her mother, and standing beside the television set said, "Well, we're waiting."

'School Long Ago' Skit Tops Wilson PTA's Founder's Meet

Many old and new friends gathered Tuesday evening at Woodrow Wilson School for the annual PTA Founder's Day program. A warm welcome was extended by Mrs. John Spittler, unit president, and Mrs. Ethel Hahn, principal.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Foriest Cunningham, program chairman, spoke of a few of the extension activities of the district PTA, introduced the past presidents in attendance, and read the correspondence from those unable to attend.

A skit, "School of Long Ago," was presented by Mrs. Gladys Ferrea's fourth grade class. The students were appropriately costumed for the 1900 era, and their lesson was a discussion of the newly formed PTA and its founders.

Mrs. Robert Williams, chairman of the Honorary Life Membership committee, commented on the method of choosing the recipients and the use of the Life Membership funds to set up student scholarships in the fields of nursing and librarianship, as well as teaching.

Past presidents and Honorary Life members introduced were Mesdames: F. Rickman, P. Jones, E. Hesselein, H. Marsh, W. Chestham, J. Sorensen, O. Simonsen, F. Cunningham, and M. Plansky; and Honorary Life members, Mesdames M. Linden, H. Teagney, F. Hopman, E. Hahn, R. Lobel, T. Joyce and N. Eddy, and Misses B. Sharp and M. Varni.

The two honored and surprised Honorary Life recipients were Mrs. Jane Watson, second grade teacher, for her active interest in her students, and Mrs. A. Waldvogel, recording secretary, for her activities in PTA, Bluebirds, and other community projects.

OLPH Men's Club 'Sweetheart Dance' Ruled Big Success

OLPH Men's Club dance committee, Al Estrada, Bill Konevich and Nate Pearlman, today expressed their gratitude to THE RECORD for the wonderful publicity given the Sweetheart Dance, presented Saturday night in OLPH auditorium.

A capacity crowd danced the evening away to the magic music of Angelo Ferrigno's orchestra. The affair was labeled "a huge success," and a fine time was enjoyed by all. Miss Joan Gallante of Daly City won the door prize. The ladies were presented with corsages.

The evening was topped off by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Di Maggio, of 854 Bellevue avenue, who announced the engagement of their daughter, Diana, to Eddie Fragoneni of San Francisco. This was followed by refreshments and the traditional cutting of a huge engagement cake by Diana and Eddie. The cake was served by Mrs. DiMaggio.

BLESSING OF Our Lady of Mercy Catholic church and school in Westlake was administered by the most reverent Merlin Guilfoyle (center), auxiliary bishop of the San Francisco Archdiocese, at dedication ceremonies Sunday. Flanking the bishop are his two chaplains. Nearly 1000 persons attended the morning mass and blessing. Father John Mills of the Sacred Heart church of San Francisco said the mass, while Fathers Vincent Carroll of St. Thomas More and Thomas Farrell of Holy Angels in Colma served as deacon and sub-deacon, respectively.

Winston Manorites Await Mardi Gras

The Winston Manor No. 3 Improvement association is planning a semi-dressy dance to be held Saturday at Forest Lodge, 266 Laguna Honda boulevard, San Francisco.

Dancing will be to the music of Vic Accernero and his band.

The entertainment will be furnished by the Mason-Kahn dance revue, Don Sargent, who has recently finished engagements at Facks and appeared on the Don Sherwood show, and Phyllis Day, with her always popular hula dance.

There will be several lovely door prizes, one of which is a G. E. Portable T.V. set. A buffet will be served and mixed drinks will be available.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Robert Lilleberg at PL 6-1874.

Chairman of the committee is Walter Schill. Bob Lillerg is co-chairman. Committee members are: Marvyn Russell, Mnes. Al Eefcourt, Walter Schill, and Carlton Tinkham.

Free Trees Melee: Broadmoor Runs Out Of Pines On First Day

The offer of 1000 free Monterey Pine seedlings created a minor traffic jam in Broadmoor Saturday morning.

Broadmoor Property Owners association directors were to hand out the trees all day Saturday and Sunday as part of their erosion prevention and aesthetic program.

But when the dust cleared Saturday at 10:30 a.m., all the pines were gone. Cars were lined up on 87th and Washington street to take part in the tree bonanza.

"We didn't realize there was such a demand for trees," said BPOA president Bob Buchanan. "It was surprising," he related.

The association is now negotiating to obtain more seedlings for homeowners who missed out on the trees last weekend.

Westmoor's CSF Group Installed

Westmoor Chapter of the California Scholarship Federation was installed last week at a ceremony and tea given by the Jefferson High School Chapter of CSF.

The Little Theater was the setting for the program. Ray Navarra, president of the Jefferson chapter, introduced the installing officer, Miss Ada Wood, who gave the official charter to the officers and members of the Westmoor group. The charter, establishing Chapter 537 C, was delivered to Miss Hildegarde Seidel, who accepted it for the student body.

After the program, members of the two chapters enjoyed a social hour and tea, with the Jefferson group as host.

Officers of the Westmoor Chapter are: Nancy Goldkuhl, president; Audrey Walker, vice-president, and Ellen Cortesi, secretary. Jefferson Chapter officers include Barbara Guisti, vice president, and Barbara Bauer, secretary.

California's 1956 almond crop had an estimated value of $43,872,000.

WEDDING BELLS rang recently for W. C. Harralson of Westlake and the former Louise McCray of Petaluma. The couple was married in the Presbyterian church of Petaluma. Rites were followed by a reception at the home of the bride's brother, Ernie Waters. Harralson, manager of the Westlake branch of Mercantile Acceptance Co., and his bride are now making their home temporarily in Petaluma.

Holy Angels' Gals Set For Big Show

Holy Angels' fashion show plans for this Saturday in Riordan High school are "working out nicely," according to Mrs. Vincent Murphy and Mrs. Thomas L. Bocci, general chairmen of the Women's charitable event. The decoration committee, headed by Mrs. Lawrence Caserza and Mrs. Lido Belluomini, guidance, is busy on the Mardi Gras theme.

Children's roles for this affair, chosen by the committee, are: Miss Jean Murphy, Page; Tommy Frank, Kathleen Larken, Phyllis McQuade, and Jeanette Lazzar, models.

All fashions will be from Livingston Brothers. Anyone wishing additional tickets and reservations should contact Mrs. E. A. Bobbitt, PL 5-1611, or Mrs. Roger Kucich, and they will be happy to contact the ticket sellers.

Reverend Glasse To Say 'Goodbye' In B'moor Sunday

Satisfied that "the job I set out to do here is done," the Rev. John A. Glasse, founder of Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, will preach his "farewell" sermon this Sunday at the 11 o'clock service.

Pastor and Mrs. Glasse will depart late next week for his new assignment as visitation minister of Carmichael Presbyterian Church, just outside Sacramento.

"We've had some mighty successful experiences here," he commented, "and we will miss our many friends. But my new position offers still another challenge, and I'm ready to do my utmost."

A successor will be named here shortly by the church committee. The Glasses, due to assume their Carmichael duties on March 15, will return here in mid-April for dedication ceremonies of the new $225,000 Broadmoor Church.

In the eight years since they came to Broadmoor, Rev. and Mrs. Glasse have developed their congregation to a membership of more than 400 adults and 550 Sunday School youngsters. They started out from stratch, first using a war surplus building, next completing the education unit, and now are awaiting completion of the beautiful new sanctuary.

Mrs. Glasse pioneered the Broadmoor Nursery School, and like her husband, has been extremely active in community affairs.

Before coming here, Reverend Glasse spent six years as minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Alameda. His more than 30 years in the ministry has taken him far and wide as a leader in the Presbyterian movement. Perhaps his most memorable assignment was heading a church in Juneau, Alaska, with membership numbering close to 2000.

Services this Sunday will include Baptism ceremonies and welcoming of new members. Both were scheduled especially in tribute to Reverend Glasse.

BOCCI, MARKOVICH WIN K OF C GOLF

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci and Peter Markovich, local insurance agent, won the right to represent this district in the Knights of Columbus state regional playoffs when they defeated the duo of Mel and William Kennedy, 6 and 4, Sunday at Lake Merced club.

The judge and Markovich are members of the Marian Council of Daly City, K of C, while the Kennedys are members of the Knights' San Mateo Council.

Bocci fired a medal 75 to lead the quartet, while Markovich posted a 78. Mel Kennedy shot 77 and Bill an 80.

GUEST MISSIONER at Hope Lutheran church this week is the Rev. Charles Mueller from Seattle, Wash. His Evangelism services have been tuned for both children and adults. "Families that pray together stay together," said Rev. Mueller. "Jesus Christ is the perfect picture of the justice, power and the love of God. We believe we have a clear picture of Him in the Bible," the missioner declared. The membership has been active all week in visiting and inviting everyone to attend these "Crusade for Christ" mission sermons.

Local WAC Completes Army Medical Course

WAC Pvt. Gloria E. McAllister, daughter of Mrs. Eileen Gerlach, 19 Rice street, recently completed the operating room technician course at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

The course trained Private McAllister to assist Army medical officers in performing operations in base and field hospitals. She has received orders assigning her to Fort Benning, Georgia.

Private McAllister, a 1956 graduate of Polytechnic High school, received basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

The world's record catch of albacore occured in 1912 at Santa Catalina Island when F. Kelly landed a 66 pound four ounce fish.

REV. BERGLUND WILL ADDRESS TEMPLE JUDEA

The Rev. M. G. Berglund of the Temple Baptist Church in Stonestown will be guest speaker at Temple Judea for Sabbath Eve Services this Friday evening, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Berglund will speak in observance of Brotherhood Week. A reception and social will follow. Everyone is invited to attend.

Dr. Sanford Marcus, membership chairman, announces that an all-out membership campaign has been launched and the following persons will contact prospective members: Alvan Lesser, Melvin Dubin, Charles Wine, Arthur Nevins, Fred Gruen, Herbert Bell, Robert Mildwurm, Cantor Harold Wachter, Mrs. Samuel Golub, Max Rudorfer, Mrs. Arthur Gordon, Seon Zerah, Anthony Horne, Dr. Irwin Marcus, Joseph Spiegelman and Sanford Anixter.

Anyone interested in joining Temple Judea should call the Temple Office, PL 5-9463. Membership includes religious school, and facilities offer a weekday Hebrew school in addition to many other activities.

'PRAYER CIRCLE' MEETINGS OPEN AT ST. MARTIN'S

First meeting of the "Prayer Circle" of St. Martin's Episcopal Church will be held this Wednesday afternoon at the vicarage, 94 Palmdale avenue. Starting time is 1 o'clock. Inspired by a recent talk by Dr. Charles Whiston, noted author of the book "Teach Us to Pray," the group plans to meet regularly on Wednesday afternoons. Purpose of the prayer circle is to learn how to pray, so daily prayers become more meaningful, and to pray together as a group for each person's special prayer needs. Members of the group alternate in leading the prayers.

On Sexagesima Sunday, February 24, the Rev. Allen J. Downey will deliver a sermon on the subject, "A Modern Parable on Preparation for Lent," at the 11 o'clock service. Morning prayer and family instruction will be held at 9:30 a.m., with both meetings at Westlake auditorium, 333 Park Plaza drive. Nursery facilities are available at both services. The 8 o'clock Holy Communion is held at the vicarage. For additional information, telephone PL 6-3514.

DC Legion Post 410 Plans Birthday Fete

American Legion Post 410 of Daly City is readying plans for its 27th birthday dinner in mid-March.

The event also will mark the 39th birthday of the American Legion.

Exact date and site of the fete will be announced in the near future, according to Nicholas Chausses, post commander.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For the Home

Marlite Gives Glamor

GLAMOR in a basement is relatively simple to acquire nowadays. The main elements needed in transforming an ugly area into an attractive recreation room is a wall covering and a new ceiling.

Marlite planks and blocks are ideal for such a conversion, because they are economical in cost, simple to install and self-maintaining. They never need redecorating, as they have a plastic-finish over a durable Masonite hardboard base. Occasional wiping with a damp cloth is all that's needed.

Planks in the illustration are one of the handsome woodgrains available in Marlite plank and block. Ceiling blocks and those in the area over the fireplace are one of the pastel shades, also available in a large variety.

These planks and blocks are wonderful for the do-it-yourself craftsman. Tongue and grooved edges and metal clips make their installation easy and quick. A simple nailing method holds the paneling securely in place over old walls or furring strips. The convenient size of the planks, 16" x 8', and blocks, 16" square, makes it simple for one person to apply the materials. All nails are hidden.

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.—(II Corinthians 9, 6.)

There is no one so poor that he cannot give of brotherly love—of kindness, tolerance, consideration, and a helping hand to someone less fortunate. The more we give, the more gladly we give in His name, the more we shall receive.

JEFF OTTINGS

By Alda Caggiano

"Shipwreck Shindig" has been chosen as the title for the senior dance to be given on Friday, March 8, in the cafeteria between 8 and 11:00 p.m. Needless to say, the decorations for this affair will be unique, and both the refreshments and music will be highly characteristic of this unusual theme. The highlight of the dance will be the crowning of a "King and Queen Beachcomber," who will reign for that evening. The purchase of a ticket entitles any student to cast a vote for his choice of the royal pair, who must be selected from the senior class. The various committee heads who have been striving to make this senior dance both an unforgettable and unparalleled function are Alda Caggiano, chairman; Joyce Callaghan, tickets and publicity; Johanna Hedvall, refreshments; Margaret Hoppe, decorations; Bruce Freeland, music; and Marilyn Ruocco, clean-up.

B of A Winners

Bunny Barone, Bruce Freeland, Edyth Guidry, and Florence Verducci are the winners of the recent Bank of America Achievement Awards and will receive trophies in recognition of their accomplishments in the fields in which they surpassed—vocational arts, science and mathematics, fine arts, and liberal arts, respectively. They were chosen from the certificate winners who are Merilyn Delbon, social science; Dorothy Bolton, home economics; Alda Caggiano, English; John Nichols, trades and industrial arts; Dave Calloway, art; and Robert Knowles, laboratory science.

"The Steve Allen Show," this year's junior assembly, will be emceed by Jack Lewkowitz. Various rehearsals have been held, and all acts have been chosen and are in the process of being polished for the presentation on February 27.

Class Officers

As a result of the elections last week, Marilyn Delbon will lead the senior class as president this semester and will be assisted by Karen Savage, vice-president; Jill Dougherty, secretary; and Johanna Hedvall, treasurer. The juniors have chosen Gary Ryan, president; Cecile Champagne, vice-president; Nancy Young, secretary; and Joanne Bhend, treasurer. Patsy Apodoca, president; Carol Naughton, vice-president; Carolyn Dennis, secretary; and Tarna Tunes, treasurer, are the newly-elected officers of the sophomore class. To guide them during their second semester at Jeff, the freshman class selected Barbara Giannini, president; Dolores Spinetti, vice-president; Nancy Reginelli, secretary; and Nila Johnson, treasurer.

Rehearsals for the spring play, "The Taming of the Shrew" by William Shakespeare, are being held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9 to 12 noon in the Little Theater. The members of the cast have received their scripts and by now are fairly well acquainted with their individual parts. The play will be presented on April 4 at 3 p.m. on April 5 at 3 p.m. and at 8:15 p.m. on the stage of the school auditorium.

Sergeants-At-Arms

The sergeants-at-arms appointed by Dan Miceli and approved by the Executive Board are Jerry Starr, Marian Grado, Ray Navarra, Leroy Franzoia, Lou Arrighi, Bunny Barone, Neil Dunsford, George McNutt, Gerry Bertetta, Ed Leveroni, Loretta Berg, Frank Cordellos, Mike Dunham, Sonny Martinez, Cecile Champagne, Diane Ramacciotti, Barbara Ohlendorf, Dave Harris, Angela Sunderland, Howard Harton, Marilyn Hansen, Judy Schofield and Eleanor Guerrero.

A newcomer to the Jeff faculty is John Mostowski, a resident of Daly City and an instructor in consumer, basic, and general math. He secured his education at Keystone Junior college at La Plume, Pa., Pennysylvania State college, University of Maryland, and the University of California.

Commissioners Plan

The commissioners have been busily engaged in the task of choosing interested and qualified students to serve on their committees and have also been planning new ideas which will produce an efficient and well-organized commission. To date Pat Johnson, Sandy Enloe, Jim Ahern, Cecile Champagne and Bill Bertetta have been selected to work on the entertainment commission. Phyllis Thur chose the following students to aid her in the planning of the rallies: Barbara Meyerson, Gerry Tower, Sandra Lyon, Gerry Bertetta, Loretta Berg, Dolores Del Campo, Bunny Barone, Nancy Reginelli, Pat Kennedy, Edyth Guidry, Nadja Colby, Diane Ramaciotti, Shirley Rewak, Frances Jenson, Kathy Anderson, Margaret Hoppe, Karen Savage, Luanne Carpenter and Mary Ellen Ellis.

In a recent survey, it was discovered that the students consume 50 per cent more orange juice than milk per week.

Big W'lake Wheel Parade Attracts 100 Youngsters

Over 100 children took part in the Westlake kiddie wheel parade Saturday at Westlake Shopping Center.

Everything from skates to home made racers took part in the event, with the children parading throughout the huge 64 store shopping center.

Top prize of a racing bicycle went to Bob and Chuck Murray with their racer. Other prize winners were: 2nd prize - Carl, Chuck, Craig and Cindy Ledbetter, 95 Windsor drive, covered wagon; 3rd - Gregg, Roger and Perry Fondacabe, 929 Newman drive, South San Francisco, firemen; 4th - Wayne Henderson, 41 Crestwood drive, bum; 5th - Carol Nyburg, 1140 Mimitz, and Cindy Travinsky, 735 Midway avenue, baton girls; 6th - Penny Wooster 113 Westlawn, and Beverly Kraling, 114 Westlawn, angels; 7th - Cathy and Sissy Long, 201 Parkview; 8th - David and Karen Trombino, 133 Parkview, engineer and passenger; 9th - Bobby Ellis, 7407 Thornhill, Colma, racer; 10th - Martin Rist, 1847 Sweetwood drive, Broadmoor, racer.

The winners were picked by judges Vincent Murphy, postmaster; Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Jack Kendree, managing director of the Westlake Shopping Center. Prizes for the winners were donated by Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc., while all entrants were treated to ice cream by Goodfrey's Ice Cream.

JEFF HIGH'S BEHIND-THE-WHEEL TRAINING MAKES GOOD DRIVERS

A long-range campaign to reduce traffic accidents is under way at Jefferson Union High school. Teaching teen-agers to become good drivers before they have the chance to become bad drivers is the time-tested formula for making our streets and highways safer for everyone.

Jefferson, along with more than 7,800 schools in the United States, is using that formula by offering a course in driver training as part of its curricula.

Students receive actual behind-the-wheel training in automobiles loaned to the school by Gateway Chevrolet and Neville Ford. The cars have been equipped with dual brake and clutch controls supplied at cost by the California State Automobile Association.

Edward D. Morgan, district school superintendent, reports that Louis Martin is doing "an outstanding job" as instructor for the class.

Arrangements for assignment of the driver training automobiles to the school were handled by Jack C. Clabert, CSAA district manager.

Driver education is one of the most effective ways for this country to reduce its staggering highway accident toll, according to the CSAA. Mechanical innovations have made automobiles easier to manipulate, but rising traffic volume and increased speeds have made automobile driving a science, adds the AAA motoring organization.

Learning to drive a car today is much more of an educational process than showing the student the mechanical operation of a car, CSAA says. Driver education courses cover such subjects as physical fitness, stopping distances, and driver psychology. Students also learn the reasons for traffic laws.

Text material available to schools from the CSAA covers open highway driving, city driving and driving under unfavorable conditions.

OUR OIL NEEDS

One economist estimates that we will use about 415 billion barrels of crude oil between now and the year 2000. The National Automobile Club points that that is more than one and one-half times the total oil discovered in the world to date.

CUBS IN PACK 84 ENJOY BIG ANNUAL FATHER-SON FEED

To help celebrate Scout Week, the annual Blue and Gold Father-Son dinner of Cub Pack 84 was held recently at Garden Village School. The Rev. Roy Milam said grace, and some 148 Cubs, their dads and den mothers sat down to enjoy a delicious repast prepared by the mothers of the Pack.

The menu consisted of hors D'oeuvres, chicken, baked potatoes, peas, hot rolls and butter, apple and berry pie, and milk and coffee. Colorful blue and gold birthday cakes with a figure of a Cub Scout carrying a flag decorated each table. The cubs also made napkin holders bearing their dad's names for the occasion.

For the second consecutive month, den mothers of Pack 84 were the largest group in attendance at the regular "Round Table Discussion" in South City. This important program enables the mothers to prepare in advance their monthly themes, and to take part in skits and demonstrations. During the month of January, approximately 11 den mothers attended. This month there were 13. "This is an exceptionally fine record," Stated J. Williams, committee chairman. "I certainly want to congratulate them for their interest."

11 Westmoor Students Enter Ranks Of CSF

Eleven Westmoor High students have been added to membership in the California Scholarship Federation for outstanding work last semester.

Freshmen making the honor rolls were Karen Brehm, Angela Mason, Bruce McChesney, Hazel Robinson, Ruth Solomon, Sandra Stipelovich and Gary Wagner. Sophomores joining CSF ranks were Arleen Hansen and Judith Johnson, while juniors attaining the distinction were Peggy Jones and Jackie Willard.

CSF honor students last semester who maintained their membership through high grades were sophomores Allene Downey, Sandra Smith and Gaye Stromgren, and juniors Carolyn Brice, Don Brunette, Nancy Goldkuhl, Dennis Hill, Carla Sue Ledbetter, Hank Shain and Audry Walker.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

Hollywood has broken out in a rash of films so long they require intermission. At first glance, this would seem to indicate that there is a plethora of good things, rather than a shortage of product. However, the difficulties involved in making up a double-feature bill (the curse of the movie houses) when one feature is more than three hours long are obvious.

In addition, these long films absorb so much of the industry's time, money and effort that there doesn't seem to be enough of these vital commodities left over to make both the well-constructed, average-length superior film and the hastily thrown together potboiler, for which there is a steadily declining market.

Happy Days

There was a time when Mr. and Mrs. John Doe and all the little Does traipsed down to their neighborhood movie house every Thursday night, rain or shine. Completely ignoring the $40,000 marquee on which the bill was proclaimed in letters two feet high, they greeted the manager with a cheery, "What's playing tonight?"

The latter, poor long-suffering soul, may have sweated blood to obtain that particular bill and paid an outrageous rental for it. While such indifference may have made him wonder why he went to the trouble to play the best he could find, he could always consol himself with the thought that next week's bill (a stinker) would find the same family happily asking the same question and paying to get in.

Those days were mighty rewarding to an exhibitor's pocketbook, and as he gives them a nostalgic backward glance, he must wish they'd return, however frustrating they may have been to artistic sensibilities. Well, he might just as well face it: Those days are over and they aren't ever going to come back. That segment of the populace is lost to the theaters forever. It can now find its entertainment with the absolute minimum effort—it just flips a switch.

Quality Needed

We have followed the thread of our thought to the point where we perhaps should qualify our original statement. The product shortage is not so much one of quantity but of quality to please an audience whose taste, despite the insulting opinions of many admen, is steadily rising.

So, here is our audience, receptive to going out to the movies, reading the ads for theaters within an eight-mile radius, and what does it find? This is what we're doing at this moment, so it looks as though it's again time for an INTERMISSION.

Senior Girl Scouts To Attend Confab

Eighteen senior Girl Scouts from Daly City-Colma are to participate in the senior peninsula Scout conference on April 6 and 7 at Asilomar, Pacific Grove, Calif.

The conference is held once a year. This year the theme is "Hands Around the World." The program will include speakers and girl discussion groups. There will be a special panel discussion of "Girl Scouts part in bettering foreign relations." Girls will have an opportunity to meet senior Scouts from other councils and to become better acquainted with the whole senior Scout program.

Attending from Mariner Ship No. 4 are Maureen Kennedy, Nancy Golladay, Kathy Erdman, Shirley Ann Rentsch and Miss Drena Guaraldi; from Troop 23: Ann Mori, Barbara Golladay, Karen Brehm, Laurel Klaisner, Janice Beck and April Mosley; from Mariner Ship No. 13: Betty Brown, Sue Damon, Carolyn Dennis, Arlene Hanson, Joyce McCowan and Mrs. Harold Brown.

Survivors include two nephews, Giovanni and Domenico Pessagno, and several relatives in Genoa, Italy.

Rosary was recited Sunday night at W. C. Lasswell's mortuary. Requiem mass was celebrated Monday at Holy Angels Church, followed by interment at Holy Cross Cemetery.

State Rulings Hit 9 Motorists Here

Recent rulings by the California Department of Motor Vehicles have affected nine local drivers.

License of Walter J. Moeslein, 98 Second avenue, was ordered revoked. Suspension of license was announced for David Coulouris, 984 Alta Vista, Pedro Valley; Charles F. Dunham, 575 Carmel avenue, Sharp Park; Philip P. Melton, 163 Oliver street, and Bernard L. Norris, 101 San Diego avenue.

Placed on probation were Frank P. Cheney Jr., 216 Milagra drive, Sharp Park, and Leon Vrionis, 4 Crestwood drive.

Permanent reinstatements were granted Joseph L. Langensand, 427 Templeton avenue, and Raymond P. Steckler, 118 East Moltke street, apartment 42.

Something For Everyone

One in every 10 Americans today is over 65, according to recent figures. This compares with about one in 25 in 1900. Within two decades, it is predicted, one in every seven Americans will be above 65.

This steady increase in the age of our population has stepped up interest at the Daly City public library and its Westlake-Broadmoor branch in books on retirement and the problems of the aging.

Joseph Buckley's recently revised RETIREMENT HANDBOOK has been especially popular with persons looking ahead to retirement. It covers such aspects as planning, work opportunities, avocations, economic considerations, and desirable climates. An older book, Ray Giles' HOW TO RETIRE—AND ENJOY IT, also covers much the same material. Walter B. Pitkin's THE BEST YEARS: HOW TO ENJOY RETIREMENT and Henriette Kish's QUESTIONS OLDER PEOPLE ASK both offer valuable advice and reassurance to those who want to make their own, or others', later years more satisfying and enjoyable.

Health problems are naturally among those of greatest interest to older people, and many of the library's books will prove valuable from a preventive standpoint as well as supplementary to their physicians' advice. Among these are such titles as YOUR BLOOD PRESSURE AND HOW TO LIVE WITH IT, by Dr. William A. Brams; HOW TO REDUCE SURELY and SAFELY, by Dr. Herbert Pollack; BODY, MIND AND SUGAR, by Dr. E. M. Abrahamson and A. W. Pezet; and YOUR TEETH AND HOW TO KEEP THEM, by Dr. Jerome J. Mifler. THE TRUTH ABOUT CANCER, by Charles S. Cameron is another very important recent title at the Library, as are two other general medical books, BETTER HEALTH THROUGH BETTER LIVING, a series of articles sponsored by the New York Academy of Medicine, and Dr. Benjamin F. Miller's COMPLETE MEDICAL GUIDE.

In addition to the books mentioned above, the library also has many titles on hobbies, travel, crafts, gardening, and other topics of particular interest to those with the leisure to indulge in them, as well as all sorts of recreational reading to please every taste.

If you or someone you know are planning to retire, or have recently done so, be sure to stop at the Daly City public library, 6351 Mission street, or the Westlake-Broadmoor branch library, 34 Park Plaza drive, to examine books, pamphlets, and magazine articles that will help you to spend your leisure time more profitably and more enjoyably. Remember, your public library has something for everyone!

INDIANS SHOOT FOR SECOND PLACE FINISH

DC Five Tied With Scots, Duel Warriors In Windup

Second place in the North PAL race is at stake this Thursday night when Jefferson's varsity cagers host the Warriors of South City in the campaign closer for both squads.

A full house is expected for the twin bill which starts with the lightweight tangle at 7:30 o'clock.

Eye Second

Deadlocked with Carlmont in second place with a 7-4 record, Coach Mike Orlich's lads can nail the loop runnerup slot if they bump the Warriors and if the Scots lose to Capuchino.

As usual, however, South City (4-7) figures to be tough on their old playmates. Orlich, always the pessimist, expects a tingling battle. The Warriors, he hemembers, knocked Jeff out of first place earlier in the season via an overtime verdict. The setback was the first of three straight for the locals. And as things worked out, they never recovered the lost ground.

Panthers Champs

Burlingame cinched the title, their first in 30 years, last Friday by bouncing Hillsdale, 50-33, while the Indinas' hopes for a title tie were smashed as they fell to Capuchino here, 46-43.

Besides the second place issue, tonight' tilts will feature the last ditch bids of two Jeff players for league scoring honors.

Larry Pottinger, candidate for North PAL "Player Of The Year," is second in varisty scoring behind San Mateo's Dave Langrock. The Bearcat has 167 points to Pottinger's 142.

Scoring Drive

Wayne Lewis, Jeff 30's ace, is third in his division with 132 points, just 16 shy of the leader, Capuchino's Russell. Like Pottinger, Lewis is a solid choice for all-loop recognition.

Capuchino led all the way Friday as they tripped the Indians in a real thriller. The Tribe rallied strongly in the closing quarter behind the two-pronged efforts of Center Tom Cloutier and Pottinger. Cloutier hit his season high of 17 points and outplayed Cap's 6-7 skyscraper, Gary Estabrook. Pottinger bagged 10 points.

The Mustangs led at halftime, 26-20, and going into the final quarter, 39-33. Their high man was Forward Billy Gomez, with 11.

Tough Loss

Steve Mezzera's 30's extended the league-leading Cap lightweights right down to the wire, only to lose, 37-36. Lewis fronted the attack with 10 points, while Guards Carl Mecchi and Gary Romriell each added 8.

Capuchino, given the "scare" of the season, trailed 14-10 at the end of the first quarter, but rallied to make it 20-all at the intermission. The win gave the young Mustangs a 10-1 record.

W'MOOR CAGERS LOSE IN FINALE WITH CUBBERLEY

Westmoor High's basketballers closed out their yearling season Friday on the losing end of verdicts to Cubberley in Palo Alto.

The Ram varsity was recked up in the topper 61-34, while the 30's went down, 46-29.

A 23-point splurge in the first quarter gave the Cub varsity a lead they never surrendered. It was 30-22 at the half, and the Palo Altans stretched the count to 46-29 entering the final period.

Brown, Cubberley's high scorer, collected 11 of his 17 points in the first quarter. Teammate Benson, bagging 16, got 10 of these in the third stanza. Rich Lewetzou headed the Rams with 12.

Rich Blackemore, with 10, was the lone spark for Byron Van Alstyne's 30's. They trailed at the intermission, 23-14, and couldn't get close after that. Cubberley's Scott tanked 10 points.

Tony Giammona's varsity bowed with a 5-9 record. The 30's finished 2-12.

Lewetzou, Heick Top Ram Scorers

Forward Rich Lewetzou and Guard Jim Heick wound up as Westmoor High's top varsity and 30's scorers as the Rams concluded their first season last week.

Lewetzou, varsity sparkplug, bagged 129 points in 14 games. Heick topped his lightweight mates with an output of 58 markers.

Center Larry Schoenfeldt was close on Lewetzou's heels with 112 points. Guard Paul Giomi was second behind Heick with 47.

Statistics were compiled by Dave Haberman, Westmoor publicity man.

Jefferson, Westmoor Nines Launch Drills

Slightly delayed by bad weather, Jefferson and Westmoor baseballers opened drills this week for the 1957 campaign.

Coach Steve Mezzera's Indians kick off next week with three exhibitions in San Francisco. Jeff battles Mission on Tuesday, Sacred Heart on Thursday, and St. Ignatius Friday.

Skipper Dutch Meyer greeted a big turnout for the first Ram team. Westmoor's opener is March 5 against Emery High across the bay.

Podesta's Cornell Holmes Chalks Up 2nd No-Hitter

Big league baseball scouts are advised to keep their eyes on Cornell Holmes, precocious right-hander for the Podesta Nursery nine. He figures to follow in the footsteps of two other Daly City phenoms, Eddie Cereghino and Lowell Creighton.

Holmes chalked up his second straight no-hitter Sunday as his mates downed the Portola Cubs, 4-0. Six double plays and fielding "saves" by Phil Fair and John Souza helped his cause. Overall, Cornell was terrific.

Holmes hurled a 14-0 masterpiece two weeks ago against Mill Valley. The two perfect jobs gave him a string of 14 innings of no-hit, no-run ball. He fanned 14 and walked seven en route. In nine trips to the plate, he rapped three singles and a double.

Dixie Howell and Souza were Podesta's big stickers Sunday as each collected a pair of hits. The tilt was the final one for the Nursery kids until summer. Most of them will play this spring in high school competition.

Colma Community Center Directors Plan Rec Survey

Colma Community Center board of directors discussed group reorganization and authorized a survey of local recreation needs during their recent meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Pauline Brown, CCC president.

Board members include Mrs. Katherine Mullen, Mrs. Ruth Brent, Mrs. Edward Maclin, and Miss Elsie MacLaren, secretary-treasurer.

Attenting the meeting were Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr., Allen Mori, Major Calvin Hall, John Ivan, Jefferson High dean of boys, Frederick Schweickhardt, Colma K-6 principal, and Mrs. Ruth Fisher, Jefferson Elementary School district librarian. All have shown exceptional interest in community work and are prospective board members.

The survey to be conducted by the board of directors will determine the need of additional supervised after-chool recreation.

Westmoor Matmen Nab PAL Honors

Two Westmoor High wrestlers, Sid Swanson and Jim Tedesco, gained fourth place finishes Saturday in the Peninsula Athletic League tournament at Capuchino.

Their performances, ending the Rams' first season in mat competition, highly pleased Coach Dutch Meyer.

Swanson split four matches in the 175-pound division. Tedesco staged two close duels in the heavyweight bracket.

Steve Robinson, third Ram entry, was eliminated in the first round of the 155-pound class.

All three Rams figure prominently in Meyer's plans this fall with the football varsity.

CORROSION

One point of an automobile battery that often requires attention is the terminal post where the battery cable is attached to the battery, says the California State Automobile Association. Corrosion may gather at this spot and set up high resistance to electrical current flowing from the battery. Have the battery terminals on your car cleaned regularly.

NEW TECHNIQUE 'PACES' STUDENTS IN ADULT SCHOOL

Classes in Business Education at Jefferson Adult Evening School are experimenting with a new approach to learning. Termed the "accelerated progressive" method, the new approach will make it possible for present students to cover course material at their own pace and for new students to start any time during the school term and still receive full instruction in properly paced sequence.

The Shorthand classes have been operating under this new method since the opening of the second semester, and according to R. L. Briggs, class instructor, the method is proving very satisfactory.

No longer need adults drop out of classes because of loss of time due to illness, previous engagements, or pressure of personal affairs. In former times, extended absences often led to cancellation of course work. Now, the student continues with the class but with a group at the same level of advancement. Material is presented as fast as the group can master the skills, with groups arranged from simple beginners to advanced students interested in improving their speed.

The progressive accelerated approach is being extended to other classes, including Art, Ceramics, Woodshop, Machine Shop, Welding, Sewing and Citizenship.

HYDRAULIC LIFTERS

The valves of automobile engines equipped with hydraulic valve lifters occasionaly make a clicking or tapping noise when the engine is first started. When the engine warms up, however, this clicking noise should stop. If it doesn't, try driving at 50 or more miles per hour on open highway whenever a safe opportunity presents itself. If this clicking continues, have it checked promptly, suggests the California State Automobile Association, because it usually means that the lifters are not being properly lubricated.

Eight Lively OLPH Bouts Pack Center

A capacity crowd enjoyed eight rousing bouts Thursday night as OLPH Men's Club presented its first amateur boxing card of the year at Community Center.

Top scrap of the evening saw unbeaten San Jose middleweight Jimmy Bouvard decision tough Kent Cook. The unorthodox Cook had Bouvard confused the first two rounds, but the San Josean scored a knockdown in the closing minutes to get the verdict. It was his eleventh victory.

Two first-round knockouts gave spectators all the thrills of the pro sport. Middleweight Dick Peletieri flattened Eddie Melbourn, and Ron Herman kayoed John Newsom in their heavyweight argument.

Referee for the program was Matt Zidich, former ballplayer who recently entered the officials' ranks.

Enthused over the big turnout, OLPH Men's Club is planning another top amateur card for March 14 here.

Chamber Chooses June 6 For Annual Golf Tournament

The brigade of hackers, fair and good golfers will make their perennial pilgrimmage to Lake Merced Country club June 6 for the third annual Daly City Chamber of Commerce golf tournament.

Chairman Bill Kennedy announced date for the event yesterday.

Out to defend his championship will be Daly City roofer Ed Castagnetto. Other golf luminaries who may compete are George Studinger and Harvie Ward, Kennedy said hopefully.

As per tradition, cups will be awarded to low net and low gross winners in the strictly amateur competition.

Entry price for the clambake will be $10, which includes dinner, green fees, trophies and door prizes.

A set of golf clubs valued at $100 will be given away.

CRUSADERS HIKE UNBEATEN STRING, OUTLAST CELTICS

The Crusaders ran their unbeaten string to three games last Thursday as they outlasted the tough Celtics, 30-26, in the feature game of the Broadmoor Youth Association league at Jeff gym.

An early lead "saved" the league-leaders at a last-ditch rally by the losers fell short.

Bruce Howard, with 9 points, and John Souza, with 8, paced the winners. Celtics John Sarro and Gerrett McDonald each collected 8.

In the other game, the All-Stars smashed the Dragons, 58-34. Frank Dykes paced the romp with 17 points, while teammate Sonny Stroller got 16. Tops for the Dragons were Billy Hix and Wayne Hilton, both with 8.

Leaders in the BYA shooting contest to date are:

12-Year-Olds—Wayne Crane and Mike Daubin, both with 24 points.

11-Year-Olds—Jim Fotenos, 24, and Jim Orlich, 20.

10-And-Under — Wayne Howell and Bruce Hix, both with 26.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY FEED SET MARCH 16

George Calegari, president of the Holy Name society of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, recently announced that the annual St. Patrick's Day celebration will take place in the parish hall on March 16.

Tony Parmisano and Tony Ricci are co-chairmen for the affair which will feature the traditional corned beef and cabbage dinner, followed by entertainment and dancing. Walter Murphy has volunteered to be in charge of the entertainment.

Details of the affair will be forthcoming in the near future but in the meantime, Calegari said, borrowing the phrase from his Irish neighbors, "It will be a hooley." A "hooley" is a party, a good time, in the modern vernacular "a ball," Calegari explained.

HERE'S HOW—Marty Krumm (right), member of the 1952 U.S. Olympic soccer team, and Ernie Feibusch, president of the San Francisco Soccer Football league, demonstrate booting techniques to youngsters assembled at Westlake park Saturday for soccer workshop. Basic skills of the game were shown some 50 boys who will be participating in a soccer league to be formed here within the next two weeks.

Brisbaners Rock W'lake, Trail Pin Pacers By One

Brisbane Market's blazing bowlers blanked Westlake Homes Tuesday night to climb within one game of loop-leading McGahey & Olson in the Daly City-Colma circuit.

M&O lost valuable ground by dropping two games to Plaza Furniture. San Pedro Lunch, meanwhile, stayed in close contention with a split nod over Bank of America. The spaghetti servers are now only two games out.

Brisbane's sweep was sparked by C. Knapp and D. Girton, who posted 564 and 555 series. Rudy Alholm was tops for Westlake with a 533.

High series for the evening was rolled by Hugh Barker of Carlo's Pizzeria. His 639 (230-209-200) led his mates to a 2-1 triumph over Luce Meats.

Paul Purpora of the Pedromen bagged high singles with a 234 second game. His series tally for the night was 578. The Lunchmen also took high team series honors with an aggregate of 2668, and they posted high team game with a 977.

In other Tuesday results, Edisco jolted Towne House in three games, and split decisions were registered by Vince & Fred's over Daly City Cleaners, Donnellan Realty over Thur Meats, and Carmona Chemical over Paul's Flowers.

M&O will try to preserve its shaky lead next Tuesday in a match with the Donnellan keglers. Brisbane tackles Towne House, and San Pedro engages Carlo's Pizzeria in other top tilts.

Sets Night Program City Rec Department For All Local Men

Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation will launch a new program of men's volleyball, badminton and basketball next Friday from 5 to 7 p.m. at Community Center.

All men in the Daly City-Colma area are urged to participate. Players are requested to bring sneakers or tennis shoes. Instruction and equipment will be provided by recreation personnel.

According to Bob Leibe, recreation supervisor, the twice-weekly women's classes in badminton and volleyball have proven very successful.

Sea horses range in size from about 1-½ inches to over a foot.

The chief gold bearing region in California is the west slope of the Sierra Nevada.

Val's Softballers Take W'lake Lead

Val's Redwood Room softballers blanked Westlake Joe's, 3-0, Sunday to take over first place in the Westlake League with a 2-0 record.

Ray Cutere's one-hitter for Val's was the top performance of the afternoon. His mound rival allowed only three hits in the close tilt.

Westlake Richfield blasted Our Lady of Mercy Men's Club, 10-2, with Babe Holmgren, first of three gasmen, chalking up the win. Westlake Lodge bombed the Shopping Center nine, 14-7, in a footballish scramble.

This Sunday's action pits: Joe's against the Lodge, 11 o'clock; Val's against OLM, 1 o'clock, and Richfield against Shopping Center, 3 o'clock.

DC Kids Eligible For Soccer Loop

A second Soccer Workshop will be held this Saturday afternoon at Westlake Park for the purpose of organizing local youngsters for competition in a six-team league of squads from Daly City, South San Francisco and San Bruno.

Bob Leibe, recreation supervisor, invites all Daly City City boys, sixth through eighth grades, to attend the session and sign up for two local teams. The workshop will be conducted from 1 to 3 o'clock.

Leibe and a bevy of soccer dignitaries gave pointers on the sport to approximately 50 kids last week. Enough interest has been shown for a league, and the circuit is expected to start in about two weeks. Each of the three cities will field two teams, Leibe predicted. Games will be played on a home-and-home basis, he said.
